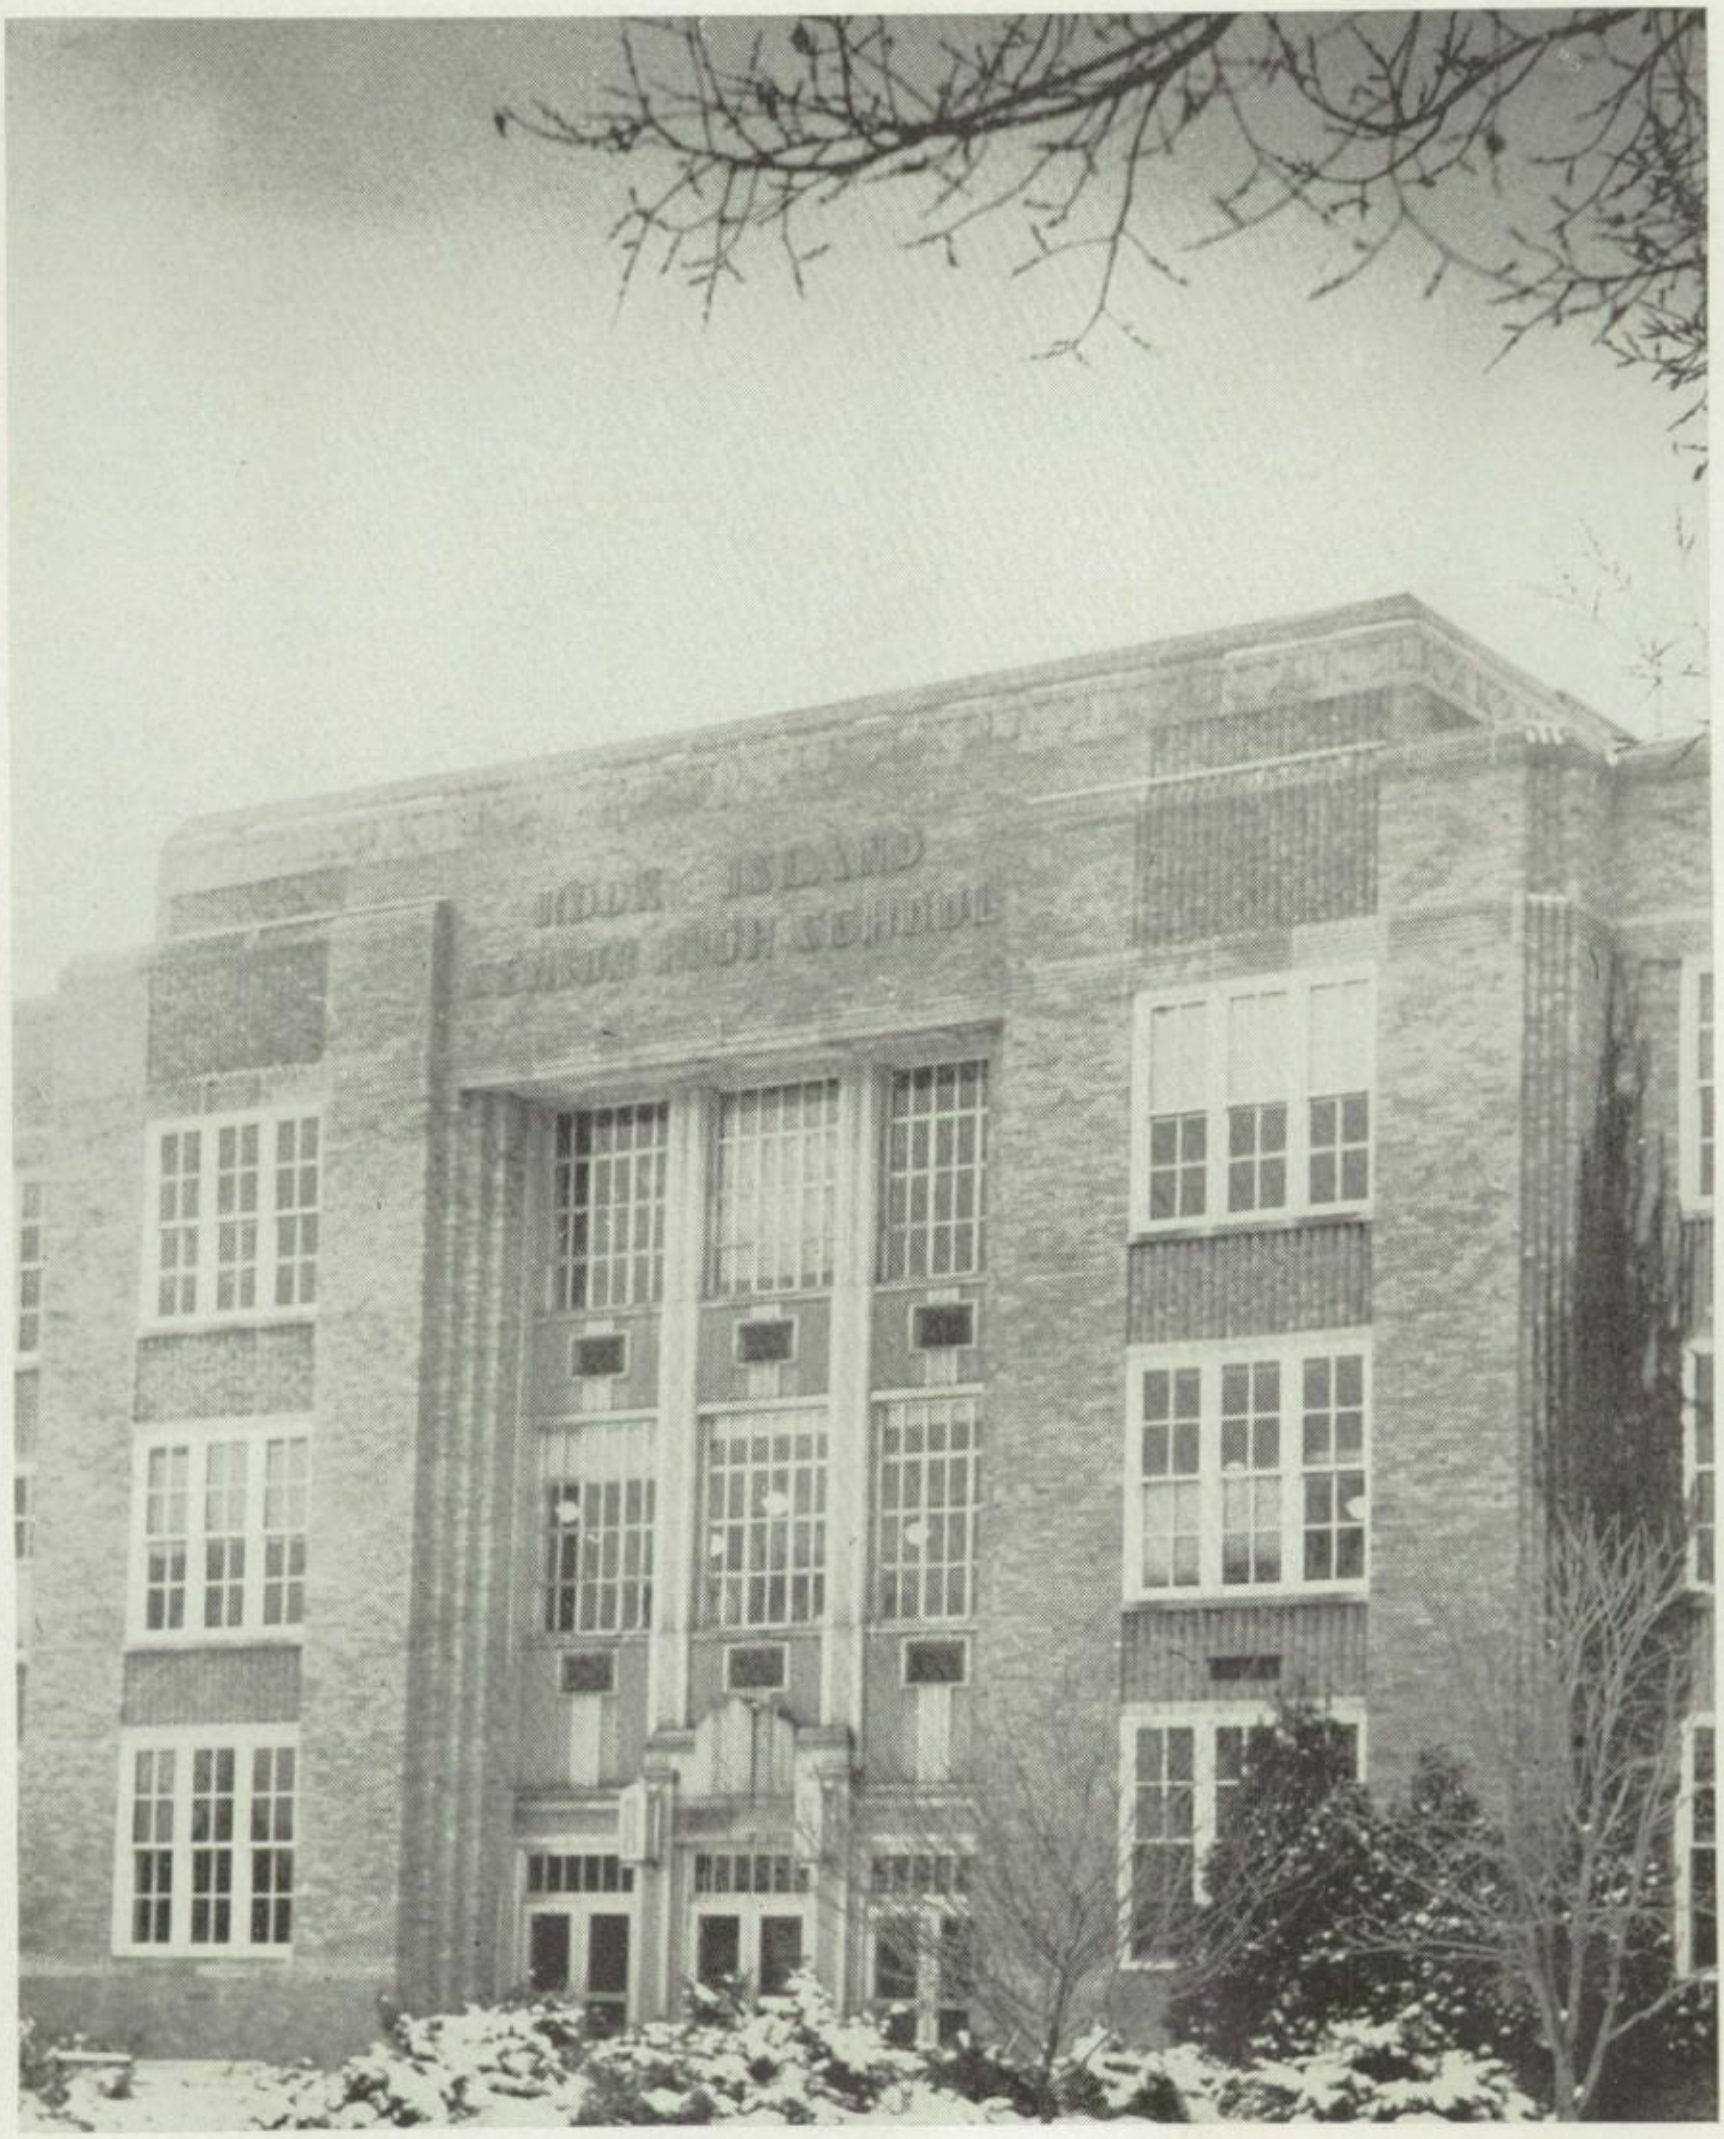
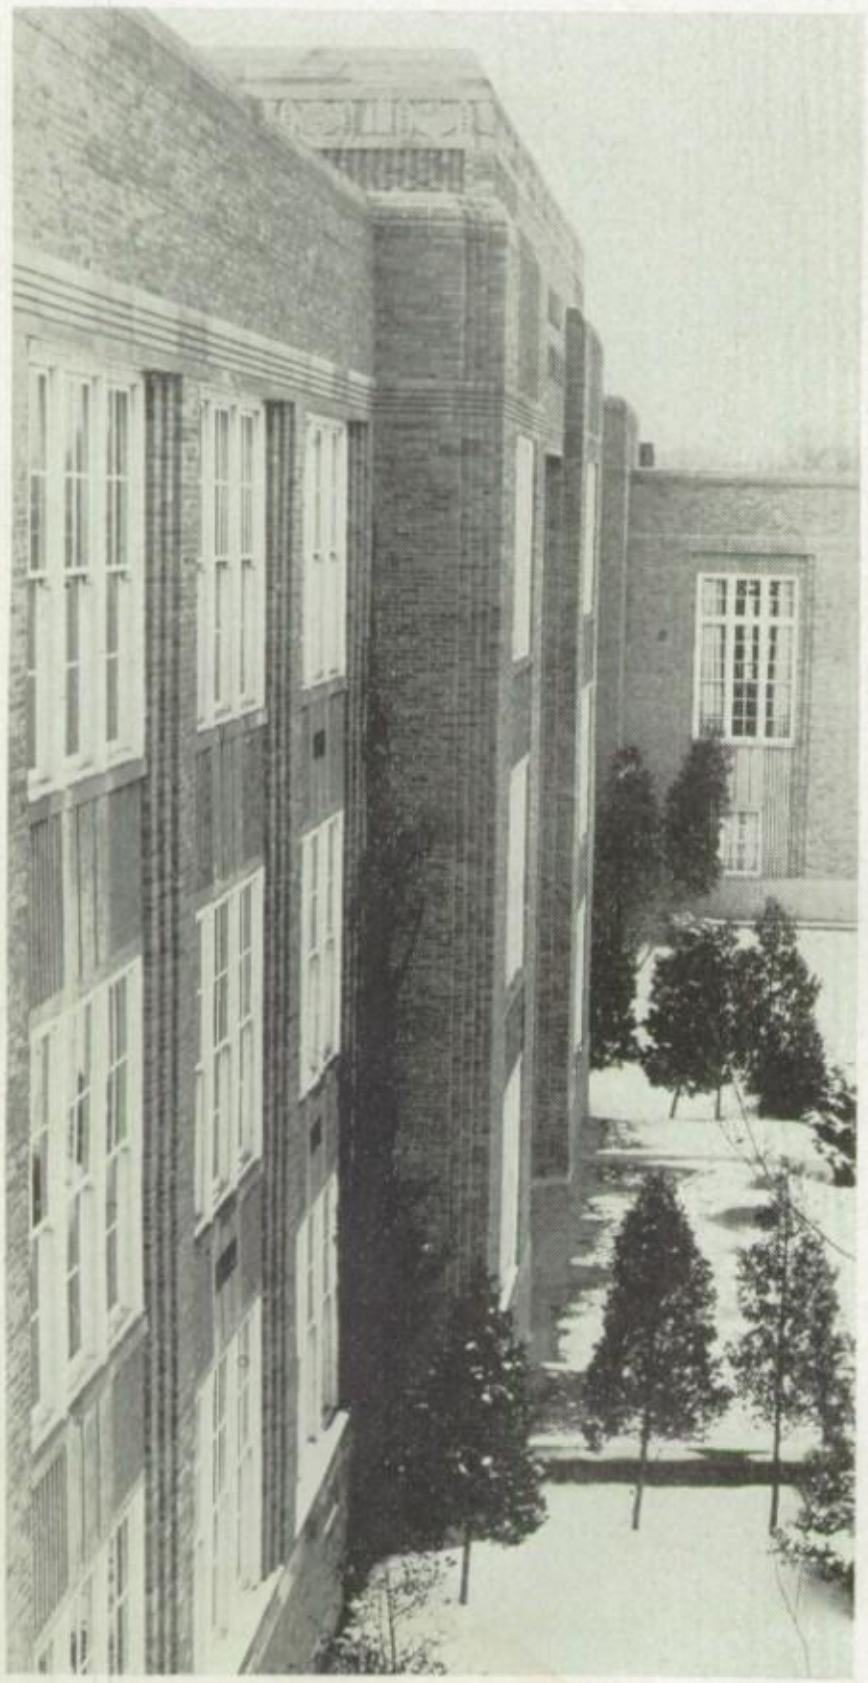
of the Future





Foreword

It is the hope of The Watchtower staff that this annual in the years to come will enable students to recall their high school days.

We have been fortunate enough to spend these days in one of the finest school buildings in America. Whether it will be through bringing back the memories of friends or the participation in the everyday life, organizations, sports, and activities of this school, we hope that the 1952 Watchtower will help you to relive your life at Rock Island senior high school.

Seated: Mr. Earl H. Hanson, Superintendent of Schools; Dr. C. W. Motz; Mr. Virgil Anderson, President of the Board; Mr. Arthur J. Hause.

Standing: Mr. Junius P. Califf; Mr. Carl F. Bauer; Mr. W. W. Bailey, Assistant Superintendent of Schools.

EARL H. HANSON

Passing another milestone in Rock Island's history, the Board of Education brings to a close a busy school year, in which the members have maintained the high standard of education for which they are renowned.

Serving as the media between the taxpayers and the school system, it is the duty of these members to see that all the students in the Rock Island school system get the best possible facilities, training, and guidance.

Because of the increased cost of operation, the members of the board have given many hours to the solving of financial problems.

Textbooks, new equipment, the selecting of new teachers, and building improvements are also more of the board's worries.

Under the alert Board of Education, Rock Island senior high school has made marked progress during the past year, preparing students to take their place in the world as better citizens.

The challenge of the future was never greater. Can you face it? Only if you face the challenge of each day and the task it presents. If you can say after the last task is completed or problem solved, "This is my best," you will meet the greater challenge with confidence.

We have a great country and a great high school. Each of you is one part that makes this greatness. Give that very best and both will stay great down through the years.

FLORENCE J. LIEBBE

Probably the greatest of all the sciences that your generation must cultivate is the ability of peoples of all kinds to live together and work together in the same world. We hope you have acquired some of the tools, some of the ideas, and above all, the resolute will to nourish and develop this new science, for the sake of yourselves, your country, your world.

Best wishes and success to each of you.

FLORENCE J. LIEBBE
Dean of Students

The world is becoming more complex and will make increasingly great demands upon you. The role you play will be determined by the way in which you use the talents which you have and the tools which you have acquired. Use them to the best of your ability. That responsibility is yours.

Best wishes in your new ventures.

Rock Island high school students have an opportunity to express themselves during the school year through the Senate, the student governing body. Each senate room elects a senator on the basis of leadership, citizenship, loyalty to the school, and the ability to maintain a C average in all studies.

Under the sponsorship of Charles O. Austin, Jr., Florence J. Liebbe, and Herbert L. Wagner, the Senate met each Thursday of this school year on alternating periods. The Senate sponsored various drives and after-game dances, chose the assemblies for next year, and carried out many other activities under the leadership of Daniel Firth, president; James Knoblauch, vice-president; and Kay Holst, secretary.

Valedictorian and Salutatorian

DICKSON HAUSE, salutatorian; JANET STOEBE, valedictorian.

Janet Stoebe, valedictorian, had the distinction of maintaining the highest average of any student to graduate from Rock Island high school. Her average was 98.45. She majored in English, Latin, mathematics, and science, and minored in social studies.

Dickson Hause achieved the honor of being salutatorian of the 1952 graduating class. He maintained a 98.2 average. Dickson majored in English, mathematics, science, and social studies, and minored in Latin.

Top Ten

In order of rank: Janet Stoebe, Dickson Hause, Sally Osborne, Joan Emery, Patricia Porter, Milles Kellogg, Linda Hanson, Carol Andrews, Shirley Bradshaw, Janice Sieben.

The following ten seniors have maintained the highest scholastic standing in their class:

Janet Stoebe 98.45

Dickson Hause 98.20

Sally Osborne 97.31

Joan Emery 97.05

Patricia Porter 96.85

Milles Kellogg 96.73

Linda Hanson 96.68

Carol Andrews 96.65

Shirley Bradshaw 96.50

Janice Sieben 96.45

National Honor Society

Row 1: Frances Carothers, Joanne Brown, Annette Frazer, Joanne Coffland, Margie Kempe, Milles Kellogg, Patricia Koch, Shirley Bradshaw, Linda Hanson.

Row 2: Georgia Cutler, Effetta Davis, Joyce Brown, Helen Hanson, Joan Emery, Faye Asquith, Carol Andrews.

Forty-eight seniors with scholastic averages of 92 or above became automatic members of the National Honor society this year. Other seniors, who had averages ranging between 85 and 92, voted on themselves, and with the help of the faculty elected ten more members on the basis of leadership, loyalty, and service to the school. These additions brought the total to 58.

Officers elected were Ben Jacobson, president; Milton (Sharm) Scheuerman, vice-president; and Janice Sieben, secretary.

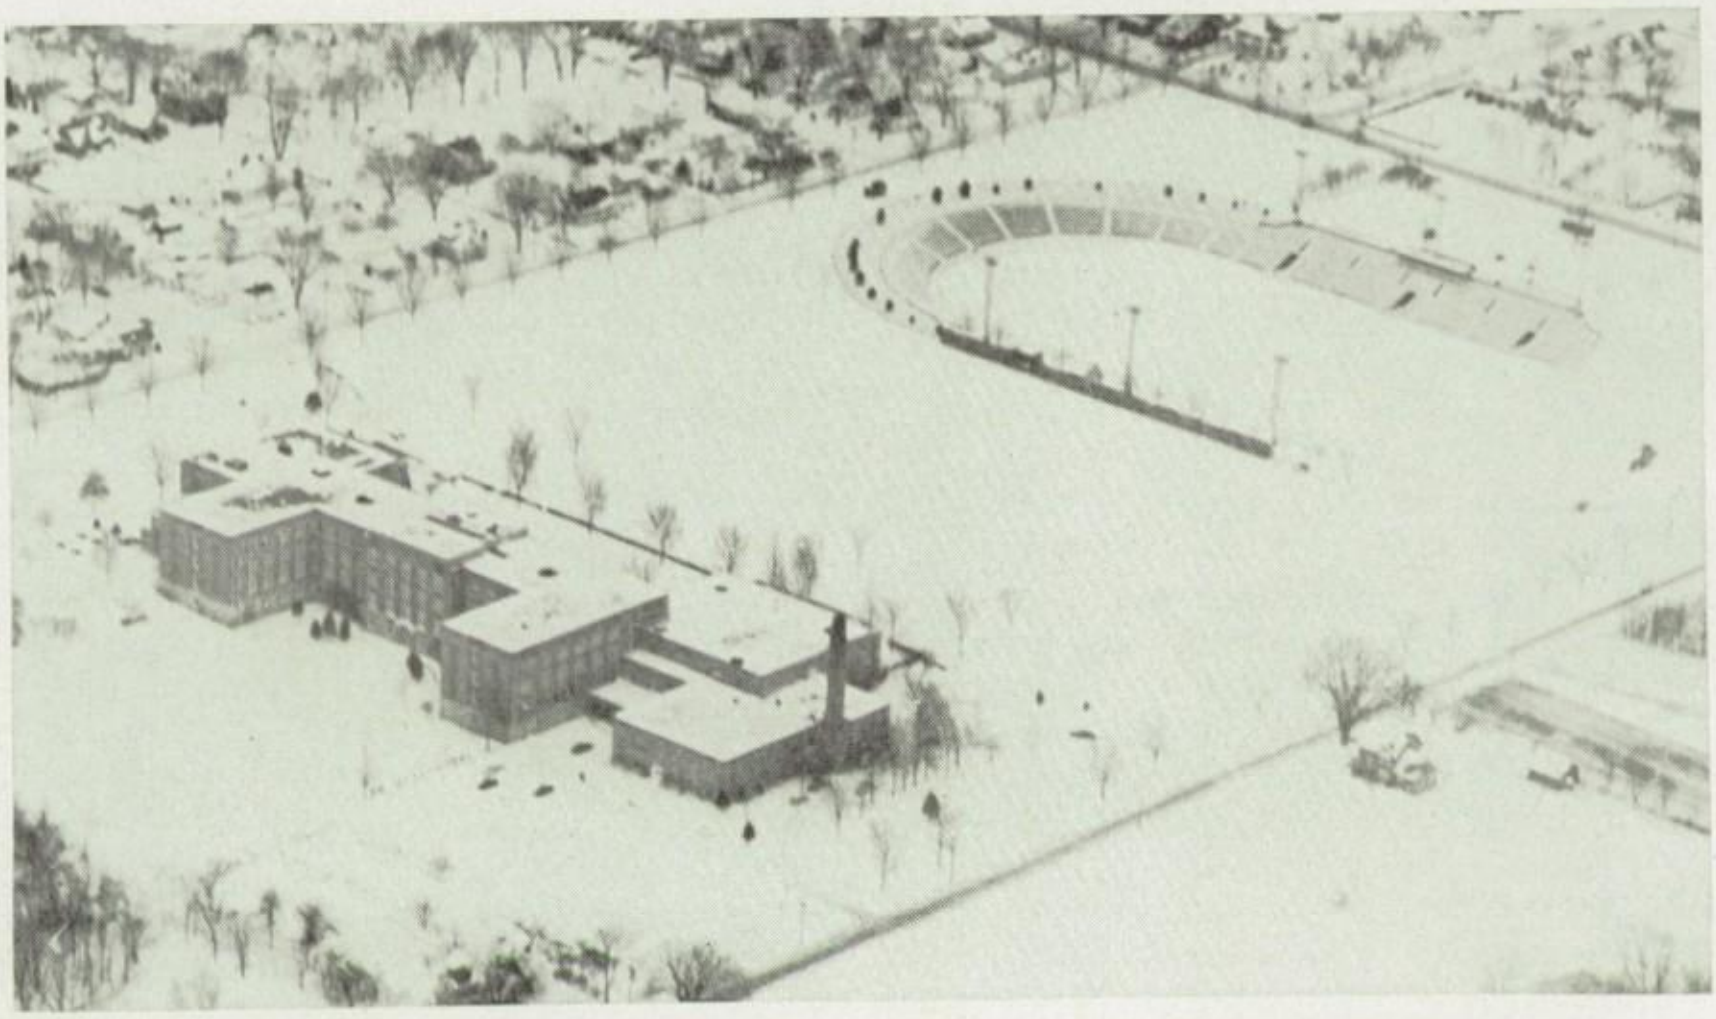
Senior Class History



Any time you're feeling lonely, any time you're feeling blue, just pick up your old Watchtower; it will bring back memories to you.

Yes, you do have memories of your days at Rock Island high school. From the time you were a trembling sophomore meekly looking up at those horrible monsters called seniors, until the time you were one of those monsters (and they weren't so horrible after all), you have spent many wonderful days at old Rocky High.

It all started in your sophomore year when you elected Leslie Scott as president, Robert Lulow as vice-president, and Marilyn Olson as secretary of your class.

On the sports side of the picture you found your Little Rocks with a record of five wins and three losses in football. Jerry Elston and Jack Evans were two who were on the varsity squad during the season. Your sophomore wrestling team had an undefeated season and your basketball team won 15 out of 18 games. You even had two representatives, Jerry Hansen and Milton (Sharm) Scheuerman, on the tournament basketball squad.

Three students who represented your class in debate were William Burgess, Randall Peterson, and Anne Slenker.

Then all at once you grew up. You were no longer considered the school's young child. You were a junior now! This year your class officers were Leslie Scott, president; Marilyn Olson, vice-president; and Kay Holst, secretary.

Seven junior boys played quite regularly on the football team, and on the championship basketball team (Northwest conference and Quad-City champs) were four juniors.

When the time came for the Dramatic club play, "Of Thee I Sing," 19 juniors took part with Bruce Harders in one of the leading roles.

William Burgess and Dickson Hause were debaters; and representing you in the state speech contest were Bruce Harders, Sally Osborne, Thomas Parsons, and John Romans.

The Speech II classes presented "Cheaper by the Dozen," with 10 juniors taking part. Annette Frazer and Bruce Harders played Mama and Papa Gilbreth.

Later on came your junior class play—a mystery thriller entitled "Dangerous Nan McGrew." Those participating were Eugene Acuff, Bruce Harders, Margurite Hinrichsen, Ben Jacobson, Marilyn Olson, Sally Osborne, Thomas Parsons, Anne Slenker, Sally Thonn, and Larry Wald.

Assisting on The Watchtower staff were Shirley Bradshaw, Richard Collins, Milles Kellogg, Margie Kempe, and James Smith, the five who then advanced to the top positions in their senior year.

In the Senate that year a junior represented your class as an officer; Marilyn Thomas was secretary.

The spring-semester staff of The Crimson Crier had Carol Andrews, Richard Collins, Kay Holst, Milles Kellogg, and Margie Kempe holding top positions.

You were proud to have Kay Holst represent your class and school at Girls' state.

As the school year came to a close, four of your class were chosen as junior marshals. They were Marilyn Olson, Marilyn Thomas, Milton (Sharm) Scheuerman, and Leslie Scott.

Your junior year had ended and you found yourself on top—a senior. This was what you'd been waiting for. Leslie Scott was elected your class president for the third time. Other leaders of your class were Robert Lulow, vice-president, and Kay Holst, secretary.

At the annual football banquet sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, eight members of your team received well-deserved awards. Albert Bloch, Robert Boeye, Jack Evans, Harry Iglehart, James Knoblauch, Milton (Sharm) Scheuerman, Leslie Scott, and James Smith were these winners.

Elmer Lawrence received the Elks' good sportsmanship award at the Elks' banquet for the team.

Captain of the drum majorettes was Nancy Simmon and the band managers were Richard Collins and Beverly Stephenson.

Seniors who took part in the state speech contest were Eugene Acuff, George Coin, Bruce Harders, Kay Holst, Ben Jacobson, Sally Osborne, John Romans, and Larry Wald.

The D.A.R. award was an honor bestowed upon Kay Holst.

The Crimson Crier had as its five top executives for the fall-semester staff Ann McLellan, Sally Osborne, Patricia Porter, Dale Price, and Janice Sieben.

Daniel Remy was chairman of your CYC committee this year. By the way, in January the CYC was painted with the school colors. Other seniors on the committee were William Burgess, George Coin, Daniel Firth, Sally Osborne, Randall Peterson, Milton (Sharm) Scheuerman, and Marilyn Thomas.

The Y-Canteen committee claimed Doreen LaMere as chairman, with other seniors on the committee being Eugene Acuff, Robert Boeye, Bruce Harders, Milles Kellogg, and Stuart Thoms.

Neva Kish was elected captain in her third year of cheerleading. Barbara McGuire was the other senior on the squad.

You had a state champion wrestler in your class, Lloyd Corwin.

In the girls' declamation contest held at Rocky High, Sally Osborne placed first in the serious-division finals.

The Senate elected Daniel Firth, James Knoblauch, and Kay Holst as its officers.

This was the year! For the first time in 14 years Rock Island high school was represented in the "Sweet Sixteen" basketball tournament at Champaign-Urbana. Seniors on the team were Jerry Hansen, Milton (Sharm) Scheuerman, Albert Hanson, and Stuart Thoms. Marilyn Olson was your candidate for the "Sweet Sixteen" queen.

When time came for the Glee club operetta, "The Bartered Bride," members of your class who took leading roles were Richard Peterson, John Romans, Sue Schmacht, and David Wetzel.

Then, nearing the end of the year, the valedictorian was announced as Janet Stoebe, with the highest average in Rocky High's history—98.45. Dickson Hause was salutatorian with an average of 98.2.

Your senior class play was a George Bernard Shaw comedy called "Pygmalion," with Bruce Harders, Ben Jacobson, Sally Osborne, Anne Slenker, and Eugene Acuff taking leading roles.

Then there was the baccalaureate, class night, and finally graduation.

Well, that's it! That's just part of what you've done in your three years at Rocky High. You've really had a swell time—maybe you've even learned something too!

Organizations

Camera Club

Arthur Goldstein, first vice-president; Susann McDonald, secretary; Janet Stoebe, second vice-president; Peter Lauritzen, president; Delores Wise, executive chairman.

Action! Camera! Whether it's action or still-life, the majority of the Camera club's members can not only take pictures but develop and enlarge them as well.

The 48 active members of the club have learned many different types of photography at the biweekly meetings. Some of the experienced members of the club took turns giving talks and demonstrations before the rest of the members.

Many basketball and football pictures as well as informal pictures of class officers were taken for The Watchtower by Arthur Goldstein, Peter Lauritzen, and others.

The officers this year were Peter Lauritzen, president; Arthur Goldstein, vice-president; Janet Stoebe, second vice-president; and Susann McDonald, secretary. The sponsor of the Camera club was George H. McMaster.

The monthly salons of the club not only stirred up a little competition for the members, but they also were enjoyed by other students, who could view the entries on the third-floor hall bulletin boards. The judges were Sara Mae McElhinney and P. J. Martin.

National salons which were entered by several club members were Scholastic Ansco and Eastman Kodak.

Pictures which were entered in some of the national salons were brought here to the high school to be posted on the third floor.

Black Hawk Tribe

Seated: Joanne Brown; George Coin, sachem; Joyce Brown.
Standing: Linda Hanson; Milles Kellogg, chief; Margie Kempe; Larry Wald; Shirley Bradshaw, keeper of the birchbark; Sally Osborne; Arlene Rice.

"Follow the trail—the trail of history" is the motto of the Black Hawk tribe, one of the oldest and most popular clubs at Rock Island high school. The tribe, which is sponsored by the social studies department, was organized in 1929.

Meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month in the activity room. There are always interesting programs centered around the affairs of the world, our nation, and our local community.

The Christmas dinner party is one of the special events of the year. New members are initiated and a smorgasbord supper is served.

Officers this year were: Milles Kellogg, chief; George Coin, sachem; and Shirley Bradshaw, keeper of the birchbark. Members of the council were Joanne Brown, Joyce Brown, Linda Hanson, Margie Kempe, Sally Osborne, Arlene Rice, and Larry Wald.

Since the tribe is so popular, the membership is limited. Any sophomore may join, but juniors and seniors are admitted by invitation unless they have previously been members of the tribe. This year's membership was 138.

P. J. Martin and John H. Shantz are the faculty sponsors of the tribe.

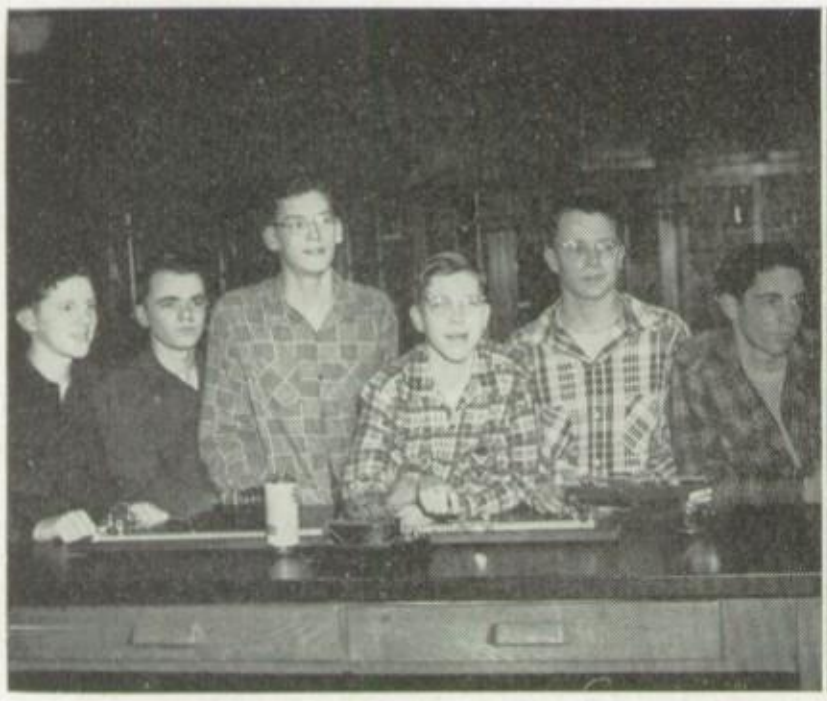
Science Club



Harry Shaddinger, Robert Motz, Peter Lauritzen, John Hause, Dickson Hause, LaMonte Koonts.

Virginia Clemmens, Vernon Hazlett, Carole Gordon, Delores Wise, Janet Stoebe.

Projects kept Rock Island high school Science club members busy in 1951-1952. Each of the members was required to start a project in some scientific field.

The best ones were entered in the Illinois Junior Academy of Science divisional meeting at Macomb April 5, 1952. Those that won either a first or second place were eligible to enter the state meeting at Charleston, Ill., May 9 and 10.

The Science club was honored in 1952 by having two of its senior members, Dickson Hause ond Peter Lauritzen, awarded honorable mention in the 11th annual Science Talent search. They were among 300 high school seniors chosen from over two thousand candidates from the whole United States. This search is conducted annually by Science clubs of America. The Science club is a member of this organization as well as of the Illinois Junior Academy of Science.

Robert Motz, vice-president; Dickson Hause, president; Carole Gordon, secretary.

Projects were not the only concern of the Science club. A trip was taken to Dr. Carl H. Gamble's observatory, and other field trips to interesting scientific places in this area were planned.

The officers for this year were Dickson Hause, chairman; Robert Motz, vice-chairman; and Carole Gordon, secretary. George H. McMaster sponsored the club.

The Science club held monthly meetings at which projects and other scientific topics were discussed.

In its efforts to show a better understanding of Christian work and living, the Boys' Hi-Y held cultural as well as social meetings twice each month at the Rock Island Y.M.C.A.

Under the co-sponsorship of John M. Huckins and Dale Holmgrain, the nearly seventy members heard such speakers as Guy Rodger, Rescue mission director, and Doug Monahan, Illinois Y.M.C.A. work secretary. Among the many social activities were the trips to Iowa City for football games.

Hi-Y officers were John Cates, president; Merrell Clark, vice-president; Daniel Munn, secretary; Jerry Parker, treasurer; George Campbell, chaplain and Karl Wickstrom, sergeant at arms. Cabinet members were George Coin, Duane Sandstrom, William Serenius, and Richard Wight.

The Lettermen's club of Rock Island high school began its fourth year as one of the school's clubs by electing officers for the 1951-1952 school year. They were James Smith, president; Leslie Scott, vice-president; and Ben Jacobson, secretary-treasurer.

To qualify for membership in the Lettermen's club, one must earn a major letter in one of the following sports: football, cross-country, basketball, track, tennis, or golf.

Under the direction of Harold V. Almquist, the Lettermen's club sponsored a Faculty-Lettermen basketball game, the annual junior high school track meets, and a Varsity show. The proceeds from these events help pay for the new press box in the stadium.

Y-Teens

Row 1: Kay Holst, president; Milles Kellogg, secretary.
Row 2: Sally Osborne, vice-president; Joanne Coffland, treasurer.

"Putting the C back in Y.W.C.A." was the theme the Y-Teens carried out in their 1951-1952 meetings.

A recognition service for officers and cabinet members; discussing world fellowship with Nil Muldur, a girl from Turkey; and getting together at the Y.W.C.A. for "Hag night" and the "Strip tea" were some of the activities the Y-Teens participated in during the fall.

At Christmas the Y-Teens prepared a dramatic worship service, "Keys to the Future," which was followed by a party. Each Y-Teen brought a gift for a child.

A scrapbook party, rumor clinic, and a choral speaking presentation on brotherhood highlighted January and February.

The Y-Teens took an active part in planning the Lenten services held in the Little Theater every morning before school during Easter week.

The senior farewell banquet in May rounded out a year filled with hard work and fun.

Ruth Harriet Koch is the Y-Teen program director. The faculty sponsors were Sarah C. Laraway and Florence Casten.

The officers for the year were: Kay Holst, president; Sally Osborne, vice-president; Milles Kellogg, secretary; and Joanne Coffland, treasurer.

Shirley Bradshaw, president; Milton (Sharm) Scheuerman, vice-president; Susann McDonald, secretary; Marilyn Melow, treasurer.

Again this year the French club carried out its program of good deeds.

With the aid of Malvina M. Caloine, club sponsor, French club members continued to send packages to American soldiers in Korea. The club received several letters expressing the gratitude of the men who had been given the boxes.

The following officers were elected: Shirley Bradshaw, president; Milton (Sharm) Scheuerman, vice-president; Susann McDonald, secretary; and Marilyn Melow, treasurer.

Row 1: Alexandra Pojedinok, Jerry Ratliff, Ethel Marblestone, Nancy Long, Marilyn Melow, Suzanne Brinn.

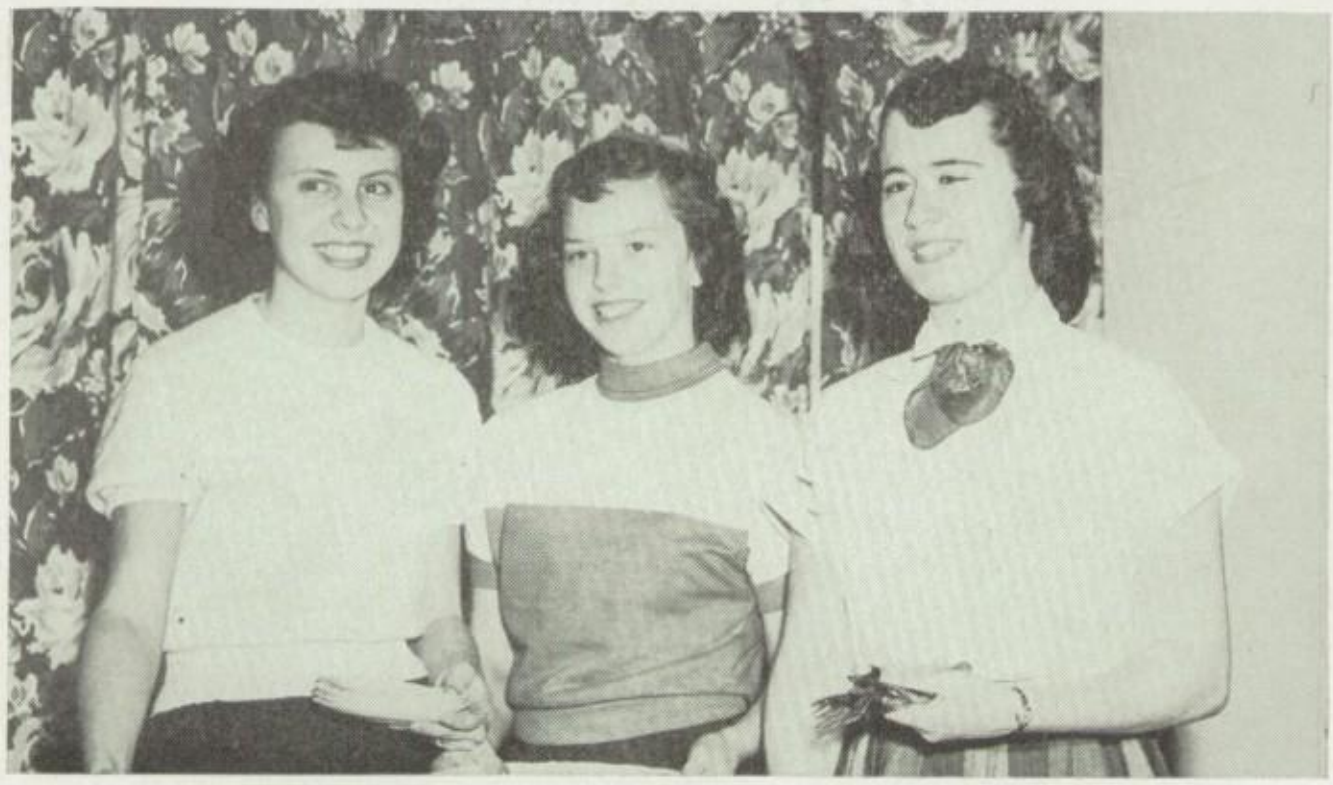
Future Homemakers of America



Shirley Kimmell, secretary; Joan Boetje, treasurer; Carole Gordon, president.

The sixth year of activity at Rock Island high school was completed by the Future Homemakers of America at the conclusion of the 1951-1952 school year. The organization is also known as the Home Economics club.

Two outstanding events this year were a Christmas dinner prepared and served by club members for guests and a Christmas basket given to a needy family.

The senior high school, Edison, and Franklin F.H.A. groups were host to a Future Homemakers of America district convention held at Franklin junior high school Oct. 6, 1951. Another important occasion was the Spring Tea Party.

This year's officers were: Carole Gordon, president; Shirley Kimmell, secretary; and Joan Boetje, treasurer.

Pan-American League

Ben Jacobson, president
Kay Holst, vice-president
Betty Lou Mauser, treasurer
Nancy Raymond, secretary

The Pan-American league student division is an organization offering students an opportunity to gain a better understanding of the 21 nations of the western hemisphere that are represented in this club.

Membership in this international organization is not limited to those students studying Spanish, but is open to all high school students interested in promoting good will while learning about the countries in the western hemisphere.

The league, under the sponsorship of Malvina M. Caloine, meets every third Thursday of each month, and the meetings are varied, some being cultural and others purely social. The annual Christmas pinata party is generally the most outstanding meeting of the year. Students make pinatas Another active and successful year was completed by the 1951-1952 Dramatic club of Rock Island high school under the sponsorship of E. Dorothy Peterson.

The purpose of the club is to bring together a group of students who are interested in dramatics and to encourage these interests by participation in student programs.

Since Miss Peterson finds it easier to work with a smaller group, membership is limited to 100 students. A student who has had one year of speech or who is enrolled in a speech class is eligible to join, but juniors and seniors are given preference. From the original list of students who sign up, the sponsor and officers choose the students who they feel will profit the most from membership and those who they believe will give the most to the Dramatic club.

Regular meetings are held one Wednesday of each month in the Little Theater. The early fall meetings consisted of short impromptu skits by the members. This gave everyone a chance to try his skill at acting. Later, one-act plays presented by the Speech II classes highlighted the meetings.

On Nov. 16 the Dramatic club presented its annual play. This year's production, "Good Housekeeping," gave every member of the club a chance to participate in some way. Cast members, the production staff, and ushers were all proud of their contribution to the year's dramatic schedule.

Two special party-meetings highlighted the activities of the year, the Christmas progressive party and the annual theater party in the spring.

The officers for 1951-1952 were: president, Ben Jacobson; vice-president, Larry Wald; secretary, Sally Thonn; and treasurer, Margie Kempe.

To acquaint the students with the speaking of the language, the songs, and current events of Pan-American countries is the purpose of the Spanish club at Rock Island high school, sponsored by Malvina M. Caloine.

The meetings are usually held once or twice a month during the regular Spanish class time. There are both cultural and social meetings.

The main social event of the year is the Christmas pinata party. A pinata is a container made of paper, clay, or some other breakable material, and filled with candy and small gifts. It is hung in the center of the room and the students form a circle around it. Someone is blindfolded and tries to break the pinata with a stick. When it falls, everyone scrambles for the contents.

Row 3: Sally Beals, Gretchen Dornacher, Rita Rexine, Richard Wight, Donald Bledsoe, Harvey Garver, Kenneth Maier, John Romans, Ben Jacobson, Jack Gill.

Some meetings are spent singing Spanish songs, listening to records, reading newspapers and magazines from Spain and Mexico, and speaking entirely in Spanish. Many students have Spanish correspondents or pen pals. They write to people in about ten different Spanish-speaking countries.

A chairman was elected in each class to take charge of the meetings. They were: second period, Richard Wight; third period, Terry Clark; and ninth period, Tom Edwards.

This year the Spanish club had three bake sales. With the money received from the bake sales, they sent boxes to boys in Korea.

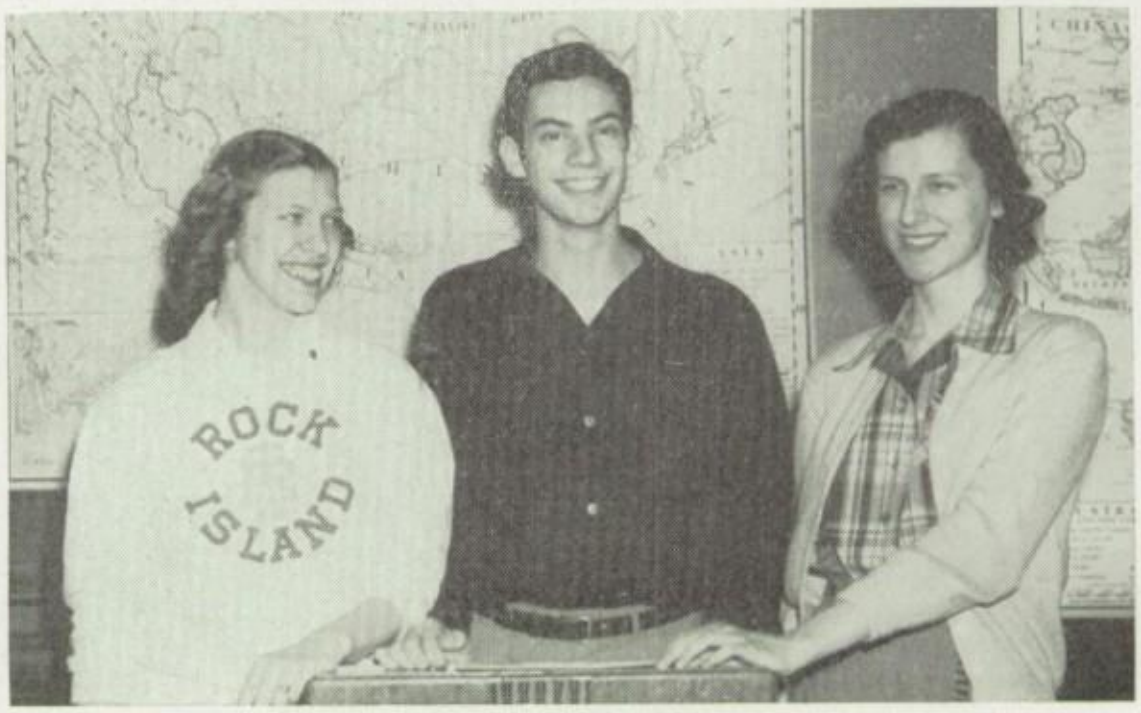
Current Events Club



Kay Holst, secretary
Edward Gellman, co-president
Faye Asquith, co-president

For five years students of Rock Island high school have been given an opportunity to discuss current world events and problems through the Current Events club.

Students have a chance to express their ideas about present world problems. To check the results of discussion, a vote is taken before and after each issue is discussed. Such problems as narcotics and excess spending in government were debated this year.

Meetings of the Current Events club are held on the third Tuesday of the month under the sponsorship of Kathryn Callihan, social studies instructor.

Co-presidents for 1951-1952 were: Faye Asquith, senior, and Edward Gellman, junior. Kay Holst, senior, was secretary.

Since the club is educational, no dues are collected.

Forced to build almost an entire new team from a squad riddled by graduation and transfer losses, Coach Harold V. (Shorty) Almquist turned out a rugged, successful gridiron squad. The 1951 Islanders wound up with a 6-3 over-all season mark and a tie for the Northwest conference title.

On offense for the Rocks, Dale Malban, Bill Geisler, and Dan Firth were flankers while Jim Knoblauch and Jerry Wheeler held tackle positions. Harry Iglehart and Lloyd Corwin carried the offensive guard load, with John Romans snapping the ball from center.

Sharm Scheuerman directed offensive traffic from his quarterback post, with Jim Smith filling the defensive safety man's post. Les Scott and Jack Evans were two-way operatives at the halfback posts, backed by Jack Lundskow and Jim Winger. Al Bloch did the Rocks' kicking in addition to running off the fullback slot.

The Islander defensive line was a bulwark all season, rising to the heights to hold Clinton to -16 yards gained overland. Troy Bland and Jim Guzzo were able defensive wingmen while Elmer Lawrence and Bob Boeye handled the tackle spots. Stuart Thoms and Harry Iglehart were defensive guards, with Lloyd Corwin and John Romans backing up the line.

Third team All-state laurels were awarded Scheuerman and Knoblauch, and ten Islander gridders won positions on the Northwest conference honor squad. Thoms, Knoblauch, and Iglehart received first-team honors while Malban, Guzzo, Corwin, Scheuerman, and Scott placed on the second eleven. Evans and Bloch received honorable mention. Lawrence was awarded the Elks' sportsmanship award.

ROCK ISLAND 35; JOHN MARSHALL (CHICAGO) 0

Scoring at least once in every period, the Islander football machine ground out five touchdowns to snow under John Marshall's forces, 35-0, in the Rocks' season opener. Les Scott provided the lion's share of the Islander scoring, crossing the goal three times while Dick Allison added a fourth tally and a 31-yard pass from Sharm Scheuerman to Troy Bland counted the fifth. Al Bloch booted five conversions.

DAYLIGHT AHEAD—Islander safety man Jim Smith heads for the wide open spaces with an intercepted pass. Frustrated intended receiver Dale Addis (32) of Chicago's Senn high gives chase as Bob McIntyre (64) closes in.

ROCK ISLAND 6; FRANKLIN (CEDAR RAPIDS) 7

Plagued by injuries to key players, the Rocks dropped a 1-point decision to Franklin on the Thunderbolts' home field. Lost to the Islander cause for most of the contest were Backs Jack Evans and Jim Gilmore. Les Scott scored the lone Islander touchdown after Lloyd Corwin recovered a blocked Franklin punt. John Romans, Jim Smith, and Corwin bulwarked the Rocks' defense.

ROCK ISLAND 26; SENN (CHICAGO) 0

With Scott continuing to plague Chicago teams with his running and scoring feats, the Islanders rolled to a 26-0 win over Senn's Bulldogs in the Rocks' stadium. Scott scampered across twice, counting once on a 59-yard jaunt. Dick Allison picked up another six-pointer and Sharm Scheuerman plowed over for the fourth tally. Al Bloch kicked two extra points. Jim Knoblauch, Bus Iglehart, and Lloyd Corwin were standouts in the Islander line.

Bob Boeye, tackle. Elmer Lawrence, tackle. Jim Knoblauch, tackle. Center: Lloyd Corwin, guard. Bottom: Harry Iglehart, guard.

ROCK ISLAND 19; EAST MOLINE 7

Making their first Northwest and Quad-City conference outing, the Rocks used the skyways to rack up a 19-7 verdict over East Moline's Panthers. With Scheuerman, Scott, and Evans doing the pitching, the Rocks picked up 252 yards through the air. Evans, Scott, and Bloch scored the Islander touchdowns with Bloch adding a conversion. Most spectacular play of the night was a 63-yard pass from Scott to End Dale Malban, which set up a score.

ROCK ISLAND 10; KEWANEE 20

Posting a 10-point lead early in the contest, the Islanders found the edge inadequate as they bowed before a blistering second-half scoring barrage. Jack Evans tallied the Rocks' touchdown with Bloch adding the extra point. Bloch booted a field goal late in the first half but the Islander margin vanished as the Boilermakers turned on the heat in the second half to win. Smith, Iglehart, and Knoblauch were the Rock's defensive stars.

LEMME AT HIM—Islander defenders converge on East Moline's Al Davis to bring him down hard in the Quad-City clash. Rocks are Jim Smith (obscured by Davis), Lloyd Corwin (68), and Jim Guzzo.

ROCK ISLAND 0; DAVENPORT 7

With its offensive machine clogged by penalties and pass interceptions, the Islander squad finally bowed to Davenport's host Blue Devils 7-0. Despite the efforts of Rock defensive stars Thoms, Smith, Iglehart, and Knoblauch, the Imps pushed across a score in the third period to hand the Islanders their only Quad-City setback and their last loss of the year.

OOPS—East Moline's Sonny Jamison paws the air as Islander safety man Jim Smith cuts the Panther back's legs from under him. Furious action like this was common as the Islanders downed their Quad-City rivals 19-7.

ROCK ISLAND 17; GALESBURG 6

Smarting from two straight setbacks, the Rocks went to work on Galesburg and emerged 17-6 victors in the Homecoming contest. The Silver Streaks, who were fresh from a 20-7 upset conquest of mighty Kewanee, could not solve a tough Islander defense. Al Bloch scored 11 of the Rocks' points with a touchdown, a field goal, and two conversions. Les Scott tallied the other Islander TD with a pass interception runback.

ROCK ISLAND 21; MOLINE 7

Scoring two touchdowns in 21 seconds of the third period, the Rocks erased Moline's conference threat 21-7 on the Islander field. On the kickoff following a touchdown pass from Scheuerman to Allison, Tackle Jim Knoblauch hustled a Maroon fumble 16 yards into the end zone for the clinching tally. Evans scored the other Islander touchdown in the first period. Bob Boeye tackled a Moline runner in the Maroon end zone for a safety, and Bloch added the final point with a conversion.

ROCK ISLAND 34; Clinton 0

With Halfbacks Scott and Evans sidelined by injuries, Dick Allison stepped into a starting job, scoring three times to pace the Rocks to a 34-0 verdict over Clinton. Scheuerman ran back a punt 41 yards for a tally and passed for two of Allison's scores while Bloch counted the fifth Islander marker. Bloch kicked four conversions. Thoms, Lawrence, and Iglehart spearheaded an Islander defense that held the River Kings to -16 yards gained overland.

Stuart Thoms, center.

Running roughshod over eight opponents, Rock Island high school's sophomore squad finished their season undefeated and untied. Under the able tutelage of Head Coach Julien E. Peterson and Assistant Coaches John H. Ahl and Lyle Jones, the Pebbles won undisputed possession of both the Northwest and Quad-City conference crowns.

Downing St. Ambrose, 18-0, in the opener, the Little Rocks edged Coolidge, 13-12, in the second contest for their only close call of the year. Alleman's yearlings were the next victims, bowing 26-7. East Moline dropped a 27-7 decision to the Pebbles, and Kewanee's hapless Riveters fell before another Little Rock scoring barrage, 40-7.

A free-wheeling 38-26 triumph over Davenport brought an end to the Imp jinx that had kept Pebble squads from unbeaten records in the two preceding seasons. The high-flying Little Rocks dropped Galesburg, 19-6, and finished off John Deere, 33-6, to post their perfect mark.

Left halfback Jerry Janecke grabbed the Pebble individual scoring crown, scoring 13 touchdowns, 14 extra points, and one field goal for 95 points. Fullback Dick Hendrickson was runner-up with 11 touchdowns for 66 points.

Carrying most of the load at end were Don Roberts, Bob Manhard, and Jerry Wright on offense and Bill Bartman, Daryl Townsend, and Bob Conklin on defense. At tackle, it was Ron Myers and Bill Mergenthal offensively and Bill Driskell and Harry Biehl defensively. Bob Olson and Dennis Sheets operated as offensive guards while Ivor McGuire and Don Foster took over on defense. Stan Heth handled center chores on offense with Gil Peterson backing up the line on defense.

In the backfield on offense, the line-up usually listed Jerry Janecke and Roland Harper as halfbacks with Dick Hendrickson as fullback. Tom Scheuerman, Jerry Thomas, and Dick Steele handled offensive quarterback operations. Don Hart, Ken Hooe, Bob Edler, and Duane Parks formed a crack defensive secondary.

Football Award Winners

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

Jim Knoblauch	Most valuable player
Les Scott	Best team man
Al Bloch	Best blocker
Bob Boeye	Most improved player
Jim Smith, Harry Iglehart	Best defensive men
Sharm Scheuerman, Jack Evans	Honorary co-captains

Praised by their coach, Harold V. Almquist, as being "never outgained and never outplayed," Rock Island's gridders came up for full honors at the eleventh annual Junior Chamber of Commerce football-awards banquet held in the high school cafeteria Nov. 27.

Coach Almquist credited his squad with "going through the season without a bad game." "This is the largest squad in Illinois prep football," stated Coach Almquist, "and we tried to make it the best."

Featured speaker Leonard Raffensperger, head football coach at the University of Iowa, pointed out, "Here you play football in tough competition and when you win, you triumph over good teams and you know that every one of them is out to beat you."

After introduction of the squad members by Coach Almquist, William Mosenfelder presented the individual awards. Singled out for individual honors were Bob Boeye, Al Bloch, Jack Evans, Jim Knoblauch, Harry Iglehart, Sharm Scheuerman, Les Scott, and Jim Smith.

Herbert E. Wilson served as toastmaster, introducing several special guests, including Principal Charles O. Austin, Jr., Dr. Albert W. Taber, and Harold R. Olmsted.

Bill Kinney, Harold R. Olmsted, and Dr. Albert W. Taber served on the awards committee.

Reigning over this year's Homecoming proceedings was Marilyn Olson, crowned Queen of the 1951 Homecoming classic in an assembly held Oct. 26 in the high school auditorium. Marilyn succeeded Nancy Struve, who ruled over the 1950 festivities.

Serving as royal attendants to Queen Marilyn were Annette Frazer and Marilyn Thomas. The three girls were the finalists voted on by the student body, privileged to choose the Homecoming royalty.

Dan Firth, president of the Senate, crowned Queen Marilyn as the high point of the annual Homecoming assembly. Jane Piggott, junior, served as crown bearer. The coronation ceremonies were followed by a special Homecoming program and pep assembly.

Islander grid forces responded in fine style to Queen Marilyn's command of "Beat Galesburg." The Rock eleven, spearheaded by fullback Al Bloch, outgained the Silver Streak speed merchants to emerge with a 17-6 victory over the tough Galesburg gridders.

At the half, Queen Marilyn and her attendants were driven around the running track to be cheered by the large Homecoming crowd. E. S. Metcalf, county superintendent of schools, presented the Islander royalty to the crowd from a stand erected on the track.

After the game, the queen was guest of honor at the annual Homecoming dance sponsored by the G. A. A. Special events at the dance included a queen's dance to honor Her Majesty and her court and a special dance for the Islander alumni. Nancy Struve, the 1950 queen, represented the alumni and was presented with a bouquet. Queen Marilyn was introduced to the dancers in special ceremonies at 11 p.m. Kay Holst served as mistress of ceremonies.

The dance was held in the Islander gym, which was decorated in Crimson and Gold by the girls' gym classes. Committee chairmen for the dance were: Jackie Chambers, publicity; Joyce Brown, concessions; Joanne Brown, program; Joyce Barber, decorations; Marilyn Thomas, tickets; and Bonnie Kjellstrand, props.

Homecoming festivities this year were more extensive than they had been in most preceding years. One of the new features of this year's Homecoming proceedings was a huge bonfire and pep rally held in the parking ground to the southwest of the school. A short pep talk by Coach Harold V. Almquist and cheers led by the varsity cheerleaders highlighted the occasion.

Cheerleaders

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS—Darlene Heaton, Neva Kish, Barbara McGuire, Sally Hawks.

Supplying the pep that has sparked the Rock Island high school teams to many fine performances this year were the members of the varsity and sophomore cheerleading squads.

Neva Kish, Darlene Heaton, and Sally Hawks served as members of the varsity squad throughout the year. Lisa Burgess and Barbara McGuire won positions at the beginning of the year but both were unable to continue as members of the squad. Barbara and Neva were seniors.

Foreground: Jane Almquist, Joan Boetje.
Standing: Sherrill Tucker, Jacqueline De Paepe, Ann Wagner.

Neva served the school for three years as a cheerleader with one year on the soph squad and two on the varsity squad. Barbara, though not a member of a squad in her junior year, led cheers with Neva as a sophomore. Lisa, Darlene, and Sally were all members of last year's sophomore squad.

Cheering their highly successful teams to numerous victories were the five members of the sophomore cheering squad. Ann Wagner, Jane Almquist, Jackie DePaepe, Sherrill Tucker, and Joan Boetje made up the yearling squad.

Awards were made to members of both squads at the assembly held to honor participants in winter-season sports. Members of the varsity squad were presented with cheerleaders' letters while the sophs were awarded numerals.

Positions on both the sophomore and varsity squads are filled by competitive tryouts in the fall.

Faynelle Haehn and Marie Terese Carlson were faculty sponsors for both squads.

WHEW—Islander cagers take a breather to map out strategy in the Peoria Manual encounter. Hansen and Scheuerman cool off while Geisler and Peterson urge more pep and Clark gazes sternly at the enemy.

Roaring through the regular season with an 18-4 record, Rock Island high school's hoopsters copped both regional and sectional honors and finished the year with a fourth-place showing in the state tournament.

Head Coach Wilbur N. Allen guided the Islanders to their first "Sweet Sixteen" berth in 14 years in his initial season as hoop mentor at Rock Island. Assisting Coach Allen were Carl Aronson, assistant coach; and Robert Riley, sophomore coach and scout.

The Rocks posted an 8-2 mark against Northwest conference opposition to finish second in that loop. A 4-2 record in Quad-City play was good for second-place ribbons. The over-all season mark for the Rocks was 25-6.

Starting line-ups usually listed Jerry Hansen, Bill Geisler, and Stuart Thoms, forwards; Merrell Clark, center; and Sharm Scheuerman, Chuck Thomas, and Don Peterson, guards. Hansen and Scheuerman were co-captains.

Several Islanders received positions on honor teams this season. Hansen was awarded a first-team berth on the United Press state All-tournament team and landed a second-team post along with Clark on the Associated Press five. Hansen was also placed on the Chicago Daily News fourth All-state team, with Scheuerman and Clark receiving special mention. Hansen and Scheuerman were Northwest conference first-team choices.

High scorer for the Rocks this season was Jerry Hansen, who tallied 492 points in 31 tilts for a 15.8 per game mark. His 74 counters in state tournament play placed him second among tournament team scorers.

In their 31 games, the Islanders scored 2,011 points for a 64.55 per game average while their opponents managed 1,537 for a 49.59 per game average. In four state tournament contests, the Rocks racked up 243 tallies to 219 for the opposition.

INTRODUCING—Islander cagers wait to be introduced to the fans at the clinic session held in the Islander gym before the regular season. Coach Allen explains some of the fine points of hard-court play to the crowd.

SHARM SCHEUERMAN, guard.

ROCK ISLAND 81; PRINCETON 28

Sporting a sizzling fast break and an airtight defense, the Rocks made Coach Allen's Rock Island debut a success, blasting Princeton's outclassed five 81-28. Chuck Thomas led the Islander scoring parade with 19 points as the Rocks posted a 44 per cent shooting average from the field.

ROCK ISLAND 48; CANTON 39

Held in check for three periods by a determined Canton control game, the Rocks rode home to a 48-39 win on Hansen's 11 last-stanza tallies. Hansen topped the Islander scorers with 15 markers as the Rocks put on an all-court press in the waning minutes to pull their first road game of the season out of the coals.

ROCK ISLAND 69; MONMOUTH 50

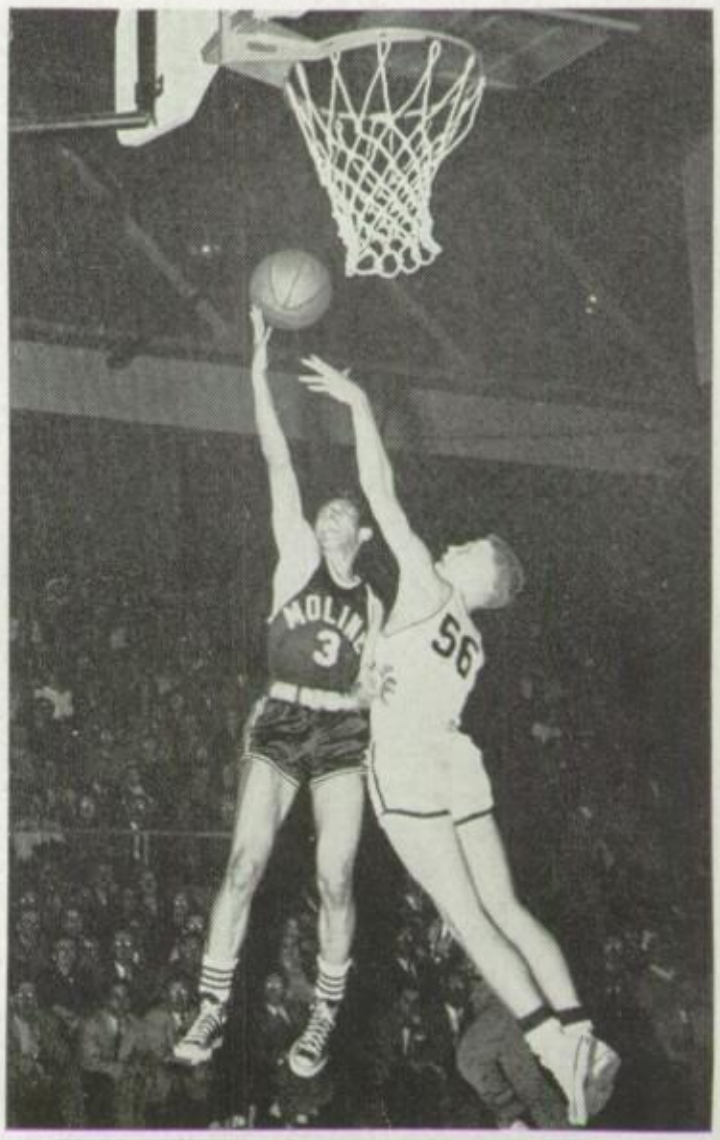
Making their first appearance of the year against Northwest conference opposition, the Rocks opened up in the second half to drop Monmouth 69-50 in the Islander gym. Paced by Clark, who notched 25 points, the Rocks found the range from the field to hit 55 per cent of their shots.

ROCK ISLAND 67; DEKALB 42

With three players accounting for 51 points, the Rocks posted an impressive 67-42 win over DeKalb on the Barbs' home court. A trio of Barb defenses proved ineffective as Hansen hit 18 points to pace the Rocks. Scheuerman picked up 17 markers while Clark scored 16. Islander rebounders dominated the boards.

ROCK ISLAND 80; EAST MOLINE 48

Rampaging to a 27-3 lead at the end of the first period, the Islanders rolled to an 80-48 conquest of the Hilltoppers. Hansen paced the Rocks with 20 points while Scheuerman turned in a fine floor game. Hansen, Scheuerman, and Peterson made rebounding an Islander monopoly.



THROUGH THE AIR—Islander guard Sharm Scheuerman (56) tries to deflect a shot lofted by Moline's Augie Martel (3). The Maroons downed the Rocks in this first regular season meeting.

JERRY HANSEN, forward.

ROCK ISLAND 75; ABINGDON 31

Using 13 players in an attempt to hold down the scoring, Coach Allen was unable to check his Islanders, who swamped Abingdon, 75-31, on the Commandos' home hardwoods. Hansen collected 16 tallies and Scheuerman dialed 14 to pace the Rock onslaught.

ROCK ISLAND 54; WEST ROCKFORD 57

Riding a six-game winning streak, the Rocks met defeat for the first time all year, bowing to West Rockford's host Warriors, 57-54, in overtime. Hansen led the Rocks with 18 markers as they turned in a fine performance only to fall short against a tall, experienced Warrior squad.

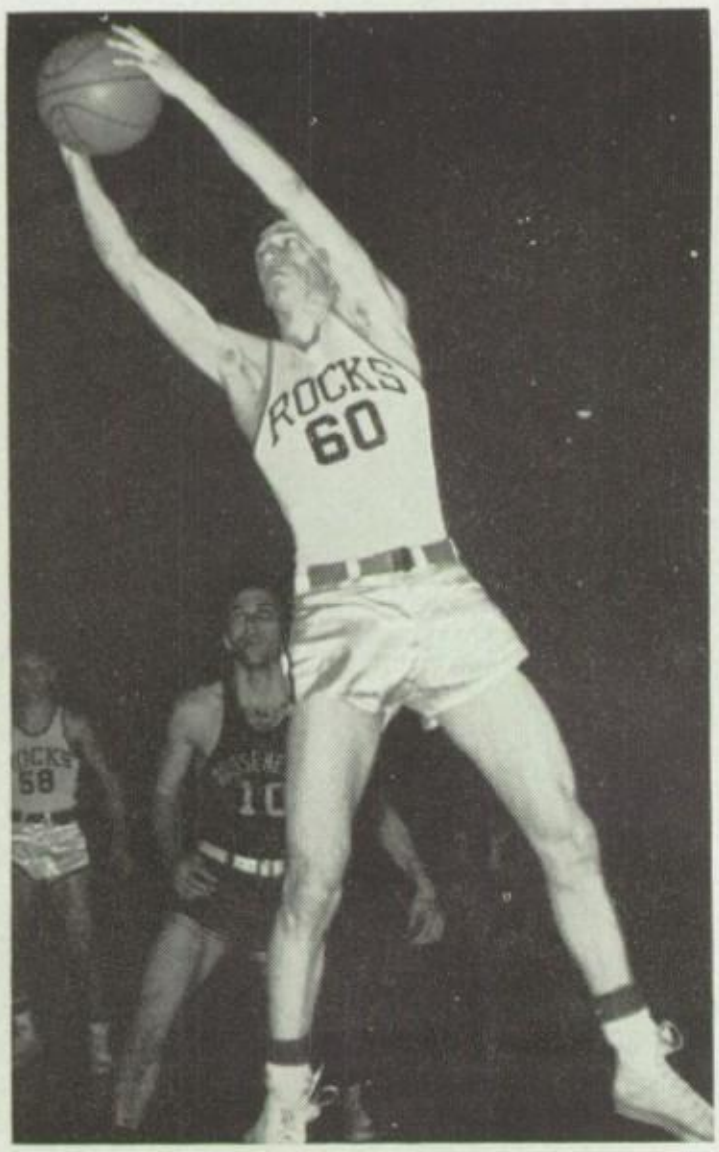
ROCK ISLAND 64; EAST ROCKFORD 66

Breathless from the West Rockford marathon the night before, the Rocks pulled up lame after amassing a 13-point lead and bowed to tough East Rockford on the Rabs' home court. Clark led the Islanders with 23 points while Scheuerman tallied 18. A 16-point final stanza enabled the Rabs to slip past.

BILL GEISLER, forward.

ROCK ISLAND 76; STERLING 36

Held even for a quarter by fine Sterling set-shooting, the Islanders pulled away in the second period and coasted to a 76-36 decision. Hansen scored 17 points to pace the Rocks while Clark grabbed runner-up honors with 16. Rebounding by Hansen, Clark, Scheuerman, and Geisler helped pave the way to the win.



COME HERE—Islander guard Tom Hendrick goes high to grab a rebound against Mooseheart. In the background are Islander Don Swartz (58) and Mooseheart's John Webber (10).

ROCK ISLAND 62; KEWANEE 43

Coming from behind after trailing throughout the first half, the Islanders rode a 23-point third quarter to victory, 62-43, over Kewanee's determined Boilermakers. Hansen gave the Kewanee crowd a show, grabbing off 21 rebounds in addition to tallying 16 counters to take scoring honors.

ROCK ISLAND 59; DAVENPORT 54

Putting a clamp on Davenport's high-scoring Carl Widseth in the second half, the Rocks outlasted the Imps, 59-54, on the Islander hardwoods. Scheuerman spark-plugged the Rocks with 14 tallies and did a fine job of directing Islander offensive traffic. Hansen and Clark added 13 points each to grab runner-up scoring honors.

ROCK ISLAND 79; GALESBURG 47

With Hansen hitting 24 tallies, the Islanders ripped the Galesburg defense to shreds in taking a 79-47 decision on the Streaks' home floor. Islander sharpshooters made good on 51 per cent of their shots. Peterson, Hansen, Scheuerman, Geisler, and Clark shared in making the Rocks dominant in the rebounding department.

ROCK ISLAND 73; WOODRUFF (PEORIA) 50

Hitting a total of 44 points in the second and third quarters, the Rocks battered Woodruff of Peoria, 73-50, on the locals' home court. Geisler showed the way for the Islanders, posting a 16-point total. Clark was runner-up with 15 counters, while Scheuerman and Thomas contributed fine floor play.

ROCK ISLAND 48; MOLINE 58

Snowed under by a third-period Maroon scoring flurry, the Islanders dropped their only home decision of the year to a rugged, veteran Moline quintet, 58-48. Hansen managed 13 tallies and Thomas chipped in with 11, but the Rocks could not solve the Maroon defenses in the second half and finally stumbled before Moline reserve strength.

MERRELL CLARK, center.

DON SWARTZ, forward.

ROCK ISLAND 63; MONMOUTH 46

Monmouth became the first double loser to the Rocks this year as the Zippers bowed 63-46 on their home floor. Hitting on 45 per cent of their field-goal tries, the Islanders found the charm in the third period and broke away from the stubborn Zippers. Clark led Islander scorers with 16 points.

ROCK ISLAND 70; MANUAL (PEORIA) 63

Manual proved a much tougher foe than the Rocks' earlier Peoria victim and the Islanders were forced to overcome a 13-point deficit to register a 70-63 triumph. Hansen hit 24 points to lead Rock scoring while Clark posted 17 markers and Geisler 16. Scheuerman was a ball-hawk on defense.

AL HANSON, guard.

ROCK ISLAND 51; EAST MOLINE 38

Turning the defroster on East Moline's deep-freeze control game, the Rocks exploded for 24 tallies in the second quarter to down the host Panthers 51-38. Scheuerman spearheaded the Islander attack with 17 points and played a fine floor game. Hansen took runner-up scoring honors with 14 counters as the Rocks hit 41 per cent from the field.

ROCK ISLAND 67; MOOSEHEART 56

With Clark grabbing 28 points for the evening and 22 tallies in the first half, the Rocks coasted to a 67-56 win over Mooseheart's Red Ramblers on the Islander floor. Scheuerman's expert passing split the Rambler defense wide open to give Clark numerous scoring opportunities, and the 6-5 center posted a season-high single-game scoring mark though playing only three quarters.

ROCK ISLAND 56; KEWANEE 55

With barely twenty seconds to go, Clark dunked two charity tosses to give the Rocks their 56-55 victory margin over Kewanee's upset-minded Boilermakers. Clark picked up 25 tallies for his night's work to capture scoring laurels. Sixteen Islander free throws made the big difference for the hosts as they held off a final Boilermaker threat to win.

STUART THOMS, center.

FOUL LINE BALLET—Islander Sharm Scheuerman (56) soars over the foul line to score against Kewanee. Jerry Hansen (55) of the Rocks watches. Boilermakers are Tom Hay (65), Paul Redin (31), Em Linbeck (22), and Mickey Bates.

ROCK ISLAND 48; DAVENPORT 45

Roaring to a 30-22 first-half edge, the Rocks posted their fourth consecutive triumph over Davenport's defending Iowa state champs, 48-45. Firing from the pivot post, Hansen dialed 23 markers to lead the Islander offensive thrust. Scheuerman contributed one of his finest displays of team direction, and Hansen dominated the boards to pace the Rocks to the decision.

ROCK ISLAND 72; GALESBURG 56

Capitalizing on Silver Streak fouls that made a 30-point free-throw total possible, the Rocks registered a 72-56 win though outscored from the field. Clark led the Islanders with 20 points while Scheuerman and Hansen were hot on his trail with 18 and 17 respectively. Hansen led the Islander charity-toss barrage with nine while Clark hit eight from the free-throw line.

ROCK ISLAND 47; MOLINE 52

An 11-point Islander surge in the last four minutes fell just short as Moline downed the Rocks, 52-47, in the Maroons' Wharton field-house. Trailing at the end of the half, 38-19, the Islanders started their uprising too late to yank the tilt out of the fire. Hansen led the Rocks with 18 points, scoring 10 in the closing minutes.

ROCK ISLAND 93; GENESEO 62

Smashing two records in the process, the Rocks moved into the semifinals of the East Moline regional with a 93-62 conquest of Geneseo. Falling victims to the Islander surge were a 35-year old Crimson single game team scoring mark and a 12-year old East Moline court scoring record. Clark paced the Islanders with 26 markers.

DICK PEWE, forward.

DON PETERSON, guard.

CHUCK THOMAS, guard.

ROCK ISLAND 64; SAVANNA 36

Downing Savanna, 64-36, in the sectional finals, the Islanders won a "Sweet Sixteen" position for the first time in 14 years. Sharp defensive work by Thomas and Scheuerman had the opposition off balance from the start while Hansen was controlling both boards. Clark tallied 16 points to show the way to victory. Three other Rocks hit double scoring digits with Hansen totaling 15 points and Thomas and Peterson posting 12 each.

ROCK ISLAND 56; THORNTON 35

Putting on a blazing show in the last three periods after a slow first-quarter start, the Rocks swamped Thornton's Wildcats, rated one of the strongest entries in the "Sweet Sixteen," 56-35. Jerry Hansen led the Islander offensive push with 19 points, while Scheuerman tallied 12 counters to grab runner-up honors. Islander rebounding and floor play helped score the first victory for the Rocks against State competition.

ROCK ISLAND 75; ALLEMAN 62

Coming from behind to pull their state hopes out of the fire, the Islanders snatched a 75-62 victory from Alleman's rugged Pioneers. Six points behind at the end of the half, the Rocks knotted the count in 53 seconds of the third quarter and went on to tally 24 points in that period to pull away. Scheuerman and Clark shared scoring honors with 21 counters each.

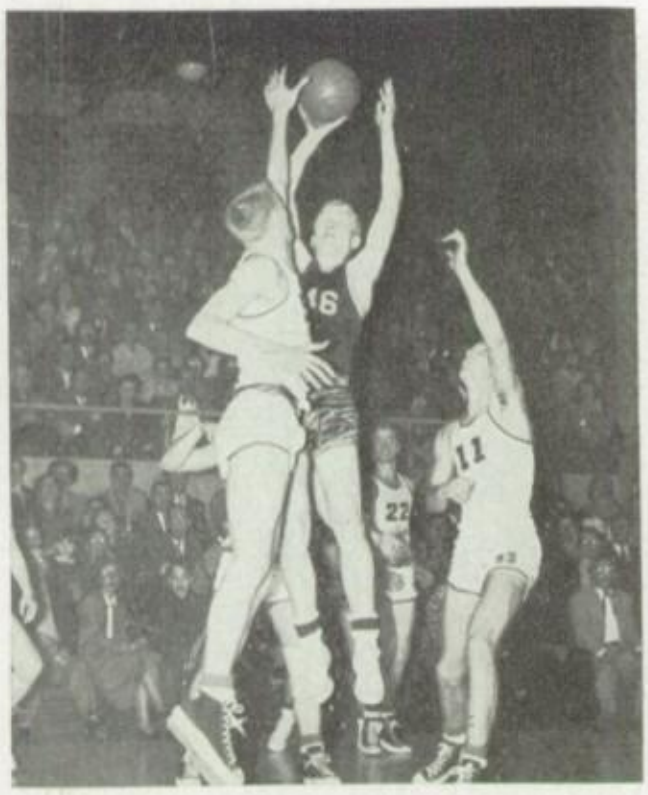
ROCK ISLAND 65; MOLINE 55

The third time was the charm for the Rocks against Moline's veteran quintet as the Maroons toppled before a hustling Islander club, 65-55, in the regional finals. New defensive patterns, built around huge Stuart Thoms, helped the Rocks to hurtle this main barrier on the way to a "sweet 16" berth. Jerry Hansen topped the Islander scorers with 23 tallies. Scheuerman and Clark contributed 14 points each.

ROCK ISLAND 64; ALEDO 43

Scoring 28 points in the second stanza, the Islanders coasted to a 64-43 win over Aledo's Green Dragons in the sectional opener at Moline's Wharton field house. Clever floor play by Scheuerman, Peterson, and Thomas helped blunt the Dragons' teeth while Scheuerman was scoring 15 tallies to lead the Islander attack. Hansen hit 13 and Thoms collected 12 as the Rocks advanced to the sectional finals.

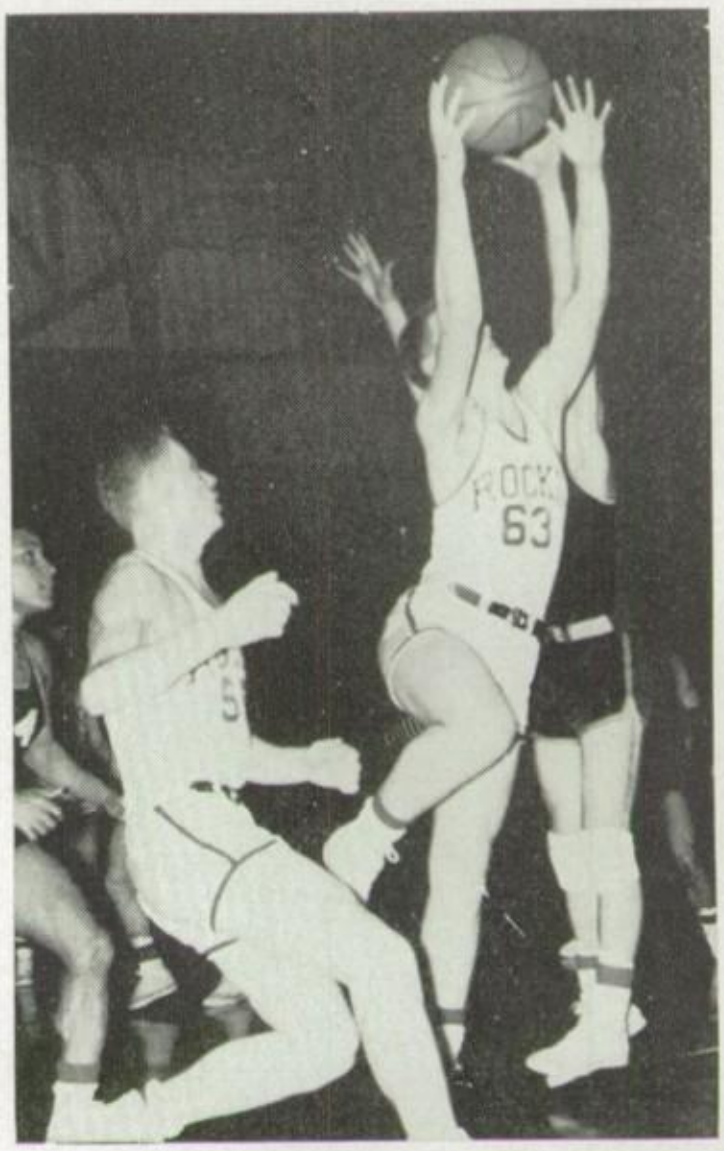
TOE DANCE—Islanders Jerry Hansen (55) and Merrell Clark (63) appear to be doing a toe dance as they go up to rebound against Mooseheart. Other Rocks in the picture are Tom Hendrick (50) and Sharm Scheuerman (56).



HERE'S TWO—Sharm Scheuerman (46) pokes one-handed over the outstretched hand of Davenport's Carl Widseth. Other Imps are Ott Sebolt (11) and Carm Carpenter (22).

ROCK ISLAND 61; JACKSONVILLE 49

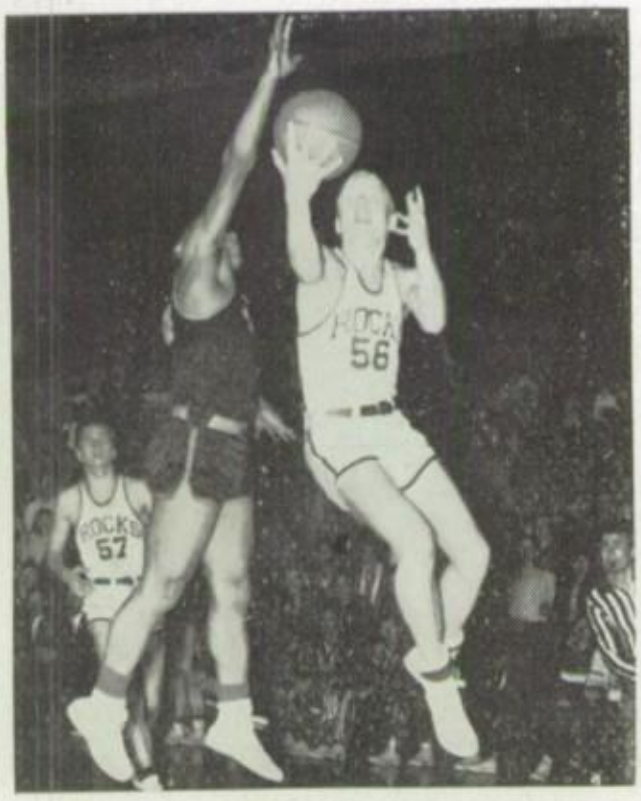
Islander forces won through to a semifinal berth in the state tournament with a 61-49 victory over Jacksonville. Merrell Clark tallied 22 points, 16 in the first half, to pace the Rocks to the win. Hansen and Scheuerman shared the runner-up position with 10 tallies each. Islander height and rebounding skill made up for an off-night in the shooting department for the Rocks.



HOOK—Islander Merrell Clark (63) swings around to toss a hook shot against Kewanee. Bill Geisler (57) of the Rocks waits to go up for a rebound.

ROCK ISLAND 56; HEBRON 64

Though coming from behind to take a three-point lead early in the fourth quarter, the Rocks were unable to hold Hebron's Green Giants and the Islanders became the third step for Hebron on the way to the state title. Clark put on a fine offensive show against Hebron's Bill Schulz (6-10) and wound up with 18 tallies. Hansen scored 14 while Thoms counted 10 points.

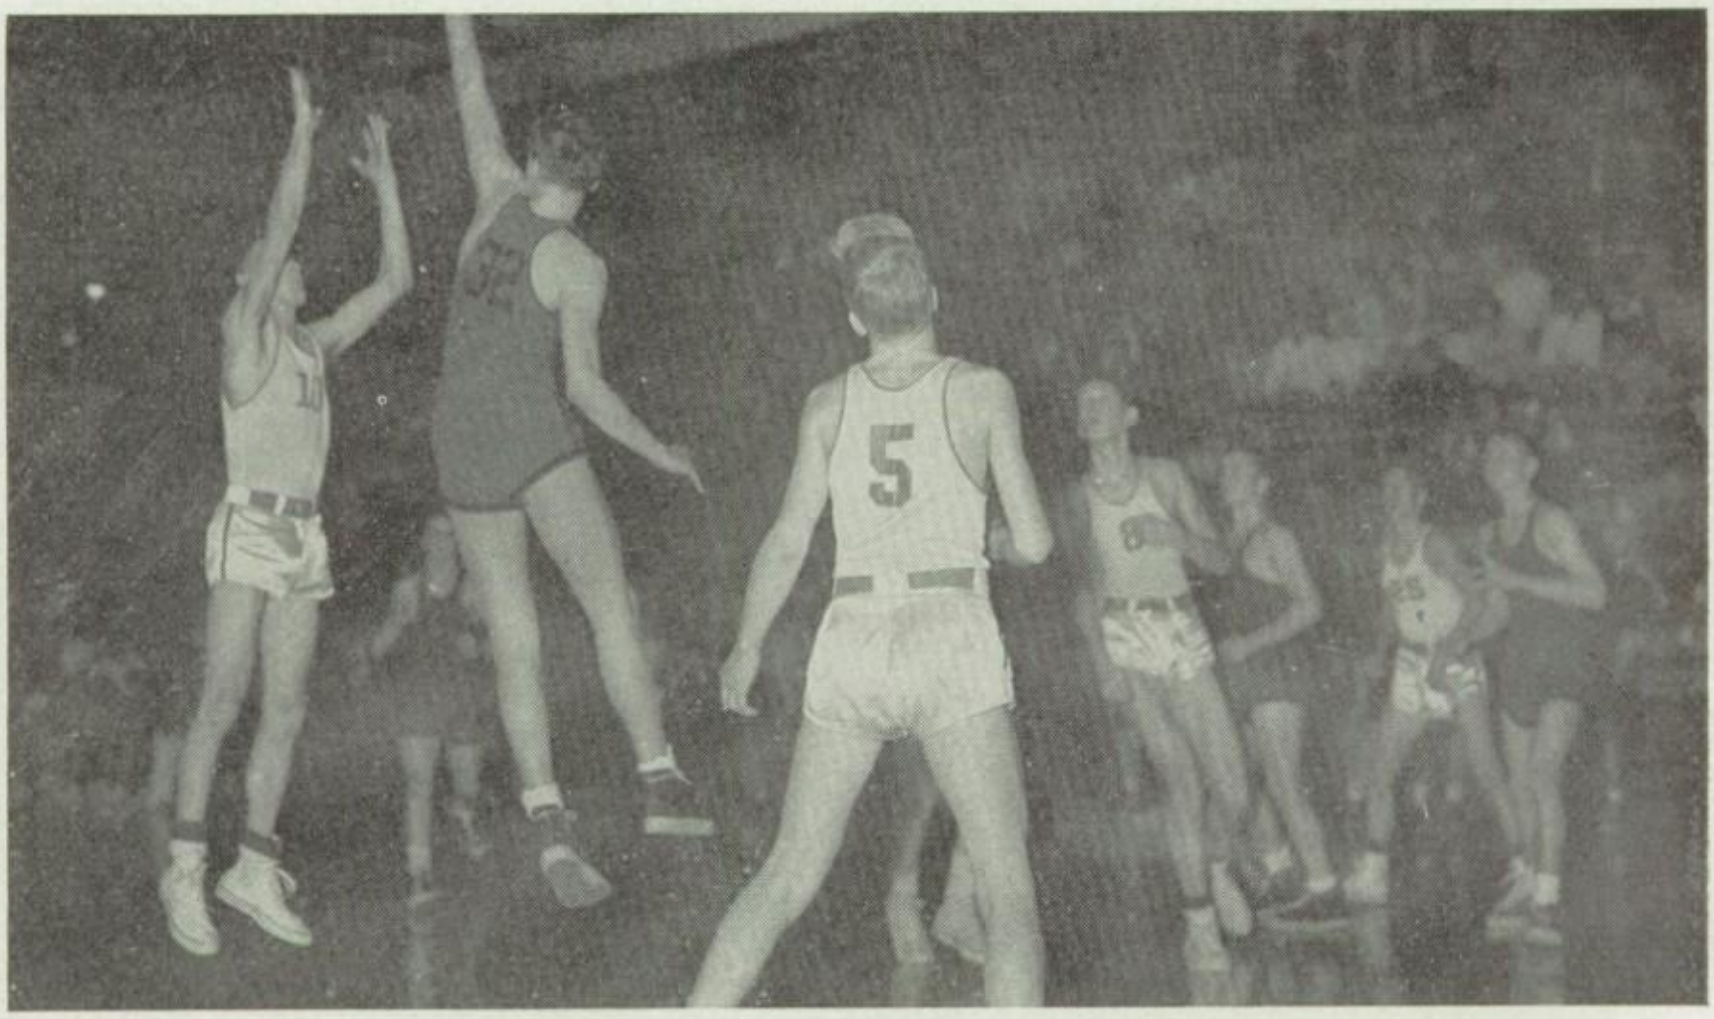


UNDER HERE, MICKEY—Sharm Scheuerman (56) shovels a field goal up underhand to foil Kewanee's Mickey Bates in his defensive maneuver. Bill Geisler (57) of the Rocks comes in for a possible rebound.

ROCK ISLAND 70; MOUNT VERNON 71

Meeting Mount Vernon in the consolation round of the state finals, the Rocks were edged, 71-70, in spite of the 31-point efforts of Islander Jerry Hansen. Hansen's total was the largest of any Rock in any single game all year and surpassed by three the high mark of the regular season set by Clark. Scheuerman hit 13 tallies while Thoms scored 10 as the three seniors led the attack in their final game.

Sophomore Basketball



GOING UP—Pebble forward Bill Bartman lofts a shot over the hand of Davenport's Ed. Bruhn. Other Little Rocks in the picture are Tom Scheuerman (5), Paul Rausch (8), and Ray Caudill.

Giving their coach, Bob Riley, several gray hairs at the beginning of the season with three eyelash victories over Alleman, Canton, and Monmouth, the Islander sophomore hoopsters finally found the range against East Moline and seldom lost it afterwards, posting a 20-2 mark for season play.

Placing second to Davenport in the Quad-City loop, the Pebbles tied John Deere's yearlings for the Northwest conference title. The Little Rocks record was 9-1 in Northwest play with the lone defeat coming at the hands of co-champion John Deere. Coach Bob Riley's crew split two games with Davenport and John Deere to wind up the Quad-City loop season with a 6-2 record.

Showing the way for Pebble pointmakers were Forwards Bill Bartman and Dick Hendrickson, who ranked 1-2 in the final scoring tabulations. Paul Rausch came along fast in midseason to win a regular's berth at center while Guards Roland Harper, a fine clutch scorer, and Jerry Janecke, playmaking and rebounding specialist, rounded out the usual starting quintet.

Spearheading a good reserve group were Jerry Thomas, Tom Scheuerman, Stan Heth, Gil Peterson, Fred Lear, Ray Caudill, and Daryl Townsend.

Building around a small veteran nucleus, Islander Wrestling Coach Kenneth E. Greene molded a strong, rugged mat squad that posted a highly successful regular season before grabbing third place in a tough 10-team sectional.

Varsity grappling rolls showed only a handful of experienced matmen with numerous sophomores sprinkled through the line-up. In spite of the squad's shortage of veteran talent, the Rock matmen responded well to expert coaching and came along fast in the final stages of the season.

Coach Greene had the satisfaction of seeing one of his charges take a state title as Lloyd Corwin grappled to the 138-pound crown. Tying for third in the sectional wrestling meet held in the Islander gym, the Rocks sent four representatives to the state finals held at Proviso high school of Maywood. Jon Arp, Lee Tobin, and Jerry Wheeler bowed to rugged opponents in early matches but Corwin carried through to the big prize.

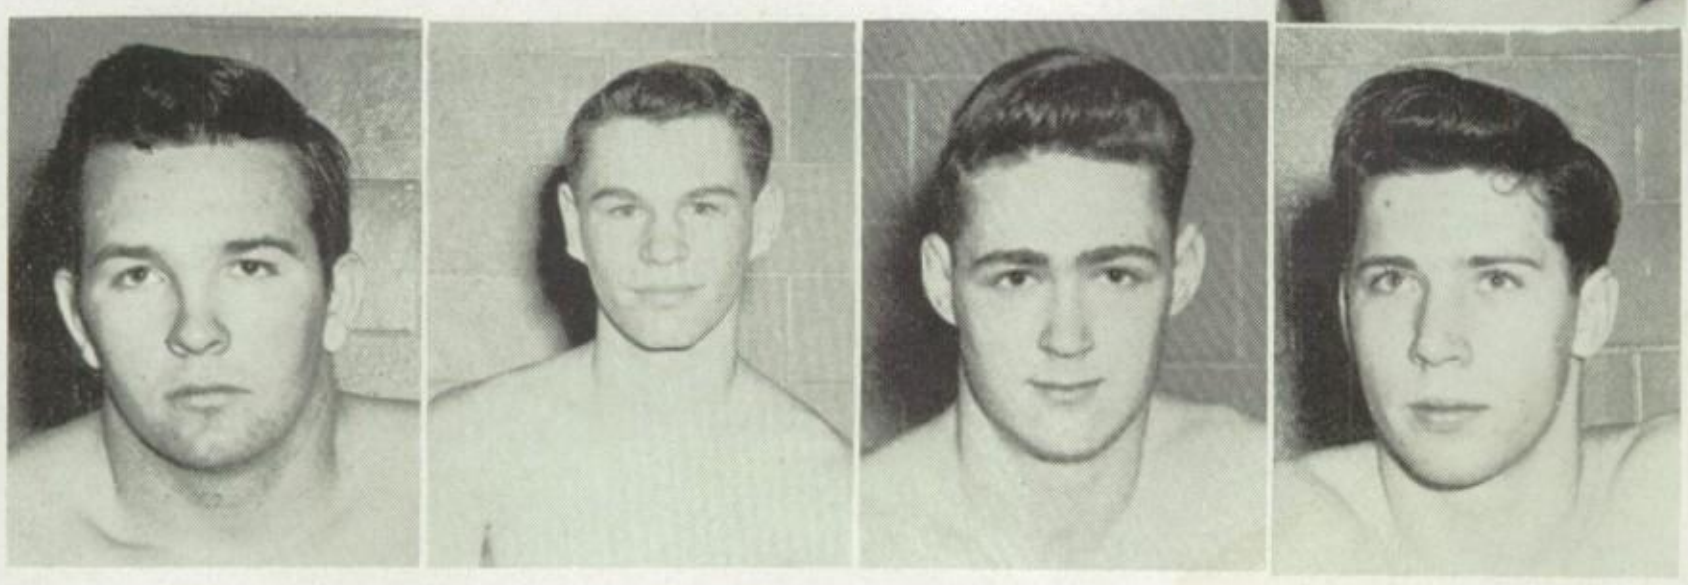
127-pound honors while Larry Kipperman, a junior, handled 133-pound duties.

Senior Lloyd Corwin went undefeated in Illinois competition as a 138-pounder while sophomore Chuck Mills saw a lot of action in the 145-pound class. Junior Chuck Dhooge answered the 154-pound call with Don Osborne taking over the 165-pound duties after returning to Rock Island from California. Jerry Wheeler, a sophomore, shot Islander heavyweight hopes up high, making the state squad in his first year of mat competition.

Jack Gill, Dick Wight, Merwyn Moody, Dave Lundy, Larry Cole, Dick Jennings, Dick Steele, and Bill Doeckel were kingpins of a crack Islander B-team.



Track

Blessed with several talented trackmen, Track Coach W. L. Kimmel was plagued mainly by a lack of depth this season. In spite of this drawback, the Islander thinclads developed in every meet and finished strong in the latter stages of the season.

Coach Kimmel was assisted in putting competitive polish on the squad by Herbert L. Wagner, who tutored the high jumpers, broad jumpers, and pole vaulters and by Howard M. Lundeen, the shot-put and discus-throw coach.

Returning from the 1951 varsity were three fine sprinters in Carey Angel, senior; Bob Hunt, junior; and Dick Allison, junior, who gave the Islanders a strong entry in the dash events. This speedy trio formed the nucleus of a good relay squad which replaced the 1951 edition that carried the Crimson and Gold to the state meet.

Sophomore distance man Jerry Thomas combined with such 1951 soph squad graduates as Paul VanHoorebeke and Gary Appelquist to form the core of the Islander mile and half-mile corps. LaMonte Koonts was also brought up from the sophomore squad to strengthen the team in the distance department. The latter three boys competed on the cross-country squad during the fall.

Several other experienced trackmen returned to bolster the squad in vital spots.

John Romans saw action as a hurdler while Bob Ries competed as a high jumper and Bob Hornback saw action in middle-distance competition. Harry Iglehart, Jim Guzzo, and Jack Lundskow were returnees in the shot-put and discus-throw departments.

A strong soph squad sent several boys up to the varsity. Pebble sprinters included Roland Harper, Jerry Janecke, Don Hart, and Jim Venable while Harry Lester, Bob Edler, and George White ran the hurdles for the Little Rocks. Jerry Thomas and LaMonte Koonts were mile and half-mile standouts with Bill Bartman seeing a lot of action as a middle-distance man.

Jerry Wheeler starred as a weights man while Ron Myers and Gil Peterson were Pebble pole vaulters. Dick Hendrickson, Bartman, and Lester competed in the high jump while broad jumpers included Jerry Trimble, Fred Lear, Janecke, Harper, and Lester.

Golf

Playing in three dual matches and two Quad-City tournaments during the fall season, the Rock Island high school golf squad improved in every outing and wound up the year with a creditable record.

With Golf Coach J. R. Clark directing their play, the Rocks scored a 9-7 win over Moline's tough linksters in a match that proved to be one of the high points of the fall season.

The other two fall dual matches resulted in losses to a rugged St. Ambrose squad, 10-4 and 13-3. The St. Ambrose squad went on to post a third-place finish in Iowa state links competition.

In two Quad-City tournaments, the Islanders registered a second-place finish in the Duck Creek course outing and took third place in the match played on the Short Hills links.

In the spring half of the season, the Rock golfers played dual matches with St. Ambrose, Moline, Davenport, and Kewanee. A third Quad-City tournament and the district meet rounded out spring competition for the Clarkmen.

Cross-Country

Cross-country Coach Kenneth E. Greene built for the future as well as for the present this year, fielding a capable team with a strong junior and sophomore flavor.

The Islander harriers met Moline twice in dual meet competition as well as in the district and Northwest conference meets. Another important Rock rival was a strong Geneseo squad which took part in the district meet and met the Islanders once during the dual-match season.

Third-place honors went to the Rocks in the Northwest conference meet. An old Islander nemesis, Moline, copped first-place honors and Galesburg finished second. The Islanders beat out Kewanee, East Moline, and Monmouth to post their third-place finish.

The Rock squad placed fourth as a team in the district meet. Islander dual meet opponents Moline and Geneseo dominated the tourney. LaMonte Koonts, Islander sophomore, placed fifth in the meet to qualify to run in the state meet. Other Islander harriers to score in the district were Jon Arp, Larry Kipperman, Dick Pieper, and Darrell Miller. Paul VanHoorebeke and Gary Appelquist competed but did not score.

The cross-country squad served not only as an independent team this season but provided a way for competitors in others sports, notably basketball, track, and wrestling, to get in condition.

Coach Clifford (Skip) Herbst's net squads battled their way through an exceptionally good season this year. The boys' team finished the fall season without a defeat while the girls won all but two of their matches.

The boys' squad won the Quad-City meet for the second year in succession. The Rocks finished with a score of 47, ten points ahead of second-place Moline.

Karl Wickstrom surpassed all opposition to win the Quad-City singles championship, downing Bill Seline, the Islander number three man, in the finals. Wickstrom, a junior, held the number one spot on the team.

Playing in the number two position was Bob Moffitt. Teamed with George Ray, Islander number four man, Moffitt was a finalist in the Iowa City open meet held in Iowa City, Iowa, on Sept. 22. This tournament was open to any high school and Rock Island tied for first place with Iowa City. Wickstrom and Seline copped the doubles event.

Bob Motz and Allen Utke, a sophomore, rounded out the squad, playing in the fifth and sixth spots.

The boys downed Moline in two matches and dropped Davenport both times they met. The girls' team was victorious twice over Moline and Davenport. Their only two setbacks were at the hands of a tough East Moline squad.

A number of practice matches were played by the boys in the spring to prepare the squad for the district meet, which was held May 3.

George Ray had an undefeated fall season in singles while Motz and Utke were unbeaten in fall doubles play.

The girls' squad this year was one of the finest in the school's history. In the Quad-City meet, Doreen LaMere took the singles title. Two juniors, Marian Hodge and Lisa Burgess, reached the finals in doubles.

The number one position for the girls was occupied by Doreen LaMere while Marian Hodge and Megan Day played numbers two and three, respectively. Lisa Burgess played number four; Ann Wagner, five; Jean Williams, six; and Marilyn Melow, number seven.

Graduating from the boys' squad this year were Ray, Moffitt, and Seline. Lone senior on the girls' squad was Doreen LaMere.

Baseball

With the large majority of the 1951 baseball squad gone the way of all graduating seniors, Baseball Coach Carl Aronson was forced to rebuild and did a fine job, molding a rugged squad in the advanced stages of the season.

Eight 1951 Islander regulars were missing when the call for baseball candidates went out this spring. A small number of experienced players who saw action in 1951 as either reserves or part-time regulars returned to give Coach Aronson something to start with.

One of the bright spots on the team was an infield that developed defensively and packed a rugged batting punch. Starring in the infield combination were Tom Hendrick, Dick Pewe, and Al Hanson. Hendrick, a slugging outfielder as a junior, blossomed into a fine third basemen in his final campaign.

Pewe, a regular at second base in his sophomore year, wasted no time in nailing down his berth at the keystone sack as a junior. Al Hanson, always a slick infielder at first base, improved as a hitter and made a valuable addition to Coach Aronson's slugging corps.

Two veterans returned to patrol the outer gardens. Terry Clark and Deno Ganakes, both seniors, won their regular berths early and formed the cornerstone of the Islander outfield patrol. Clark also served as a catcher for the Rock nine.

Returnees from the 1951 crop of hurlers included Kenny Maier and Troy Bland. Maier, a right-hander, used slow-ball pitching coupled with good control as his main hurling tools while Bland, a southpaw, featured a snapping fast ball and a good curve. Marty Galex, a junior, also saw action as a hurler for the Rocks.

slovakian operetta, was presented by the Glee club on April 24 and 25. Playing principal roles were Richard Peterson, Berta Weiler, Marilyn Melow, John Romans, Jayne Barber, Dale Price, David Wetzel, Sue Schmacht, Gustav Hult, Gerald Mosher, and Richard Eagle.

In addition to these programs, the Glee club presented assemblies and made radio and television appearances. The group also caroled in the high school halls during the Christmas season.

The Light Opera chorus is made up of a selected group of voices. The group was very busy this year presenting programs for many local civic and church groups.

The girls' trio and the male quartet appeared in many programs throughout the year. Making up the girls' trio were Jayne Barber, Marilyn Melow, and Sue Schmacht.

Boys' quartet: John Lundskow, Gustav Hult, Dale Price, David Wetzel.

At Piano: Bonnie Kjellstrand.

The male quartet was composed of Gustav Hult, John Lundskow, Dale Price, and David Wetzel.

Serving as officers this year were Suzanne Brinn and Gustav Hult, presidents; Barbara Putnam and Duane McLaughlin, secretaries; and Georgia Cutler and Charles Allen, treasurers. Judith Schaible serves as librarian and Bonnie Kjellstrand was accompanist.

To climax the year's activities, the Glee club held its annual banquet in May. At the gathering, awards were presented to outstanding Glee club members.

Girls' trio: Jayne Barber; Marilyn Melow; Sue Schmacht; Bonnie Kjellstrand, accompanist.

Dramatic Club Play

Foreground: Margie Kempe, James Fuller, Nancy Johnson, Carolyn Wessel, Diane Dockum, Daniel Munn, Linda Hanson, Shirley Bradshaw.

Background: Merrell Clark, Arlene Rice, Sally Osborne, Bruce Harders, Kay Holst.

"Good Housekeeping" was the feature for the evening of Nov. 16, 1951. It was the Dramatic club play presented under the direction of E. Dorothy Peterson.

This comedy in three acts was the story of Charles Burnett, president of a university, played by Daniel Munn, who was drawn into politics by his psychoanalyst wife, Marian, played by Sally Osborne. Marian considered this project "only good housekeeping."

Their two daughters were played by Margie Kempe and Nancy Johnson. Merrell Clark and James Fuller portrayed the two daughters' boy friends, while other cast members were Bruce Harders, Kay Holst, Arlene Rice, Shirley Bradshaw, Diane Dockum, Linda Hanson, and Carolyn Wessel.

The play was written by William McCleery.

Seated: Sally Osborne, Daniel Munn, Nancy Johnson.
Standing: Margie Kempe.

Senior Class Play

Row 1: Bruce Harders, Sally Osborne, Larry Wald, Anne Slenker.
Row 2: Shirley Bradshaw, Kay Holst, Ben Jacobson, Annette Frazer.

When two professors of speech, Henry Higgins (Bruce Harders) and Colonel Pickering (Ben Jacobson), take up the task of turning an ordinary street urchin, Eliza Doolittle (Sally Osborne), into the likeness of a duchess, anything can happen—and does.

This was the story unfolded before the audience which attended the senior class play, "Pygmalion," by George Bernard Shaw, presented May 9, 1952, at Rock Island high school.

The action took place in the bachelor apartment of Higgins, supervised by his housekeeper, Mrs. Pierce (Kay Holst), and in the home of his mother (Anne Slenker).

Some social friends, introduced by the parlor maid (Barbara Putnam), were James Wurbs, Shirley Bradshaw, and Annette Frazer.

Things became quite upset later when Eliza's father, Alfred Doolittle (Eugene Acuff), turned up.

Other cast members were George Coin, Robert Rosene, Robert Boeye, Frank Gadient, Linda Hanson, Katherine Jones, Margie Kempe, Elnora McKee, Marilyn Thomas, Sally Thonn.

Eugene Acuff, Robert Rosene, George Coin, Barbara Putnam.

Junior Class Play

Seated: Nancy Johnson, Carolyn Wessel, Martha Mackey.

Standing: Gene Estess, Karl Wickstrom, Daniel Munn, Arthur Goldstein, Diane Dockum.

"Pink Magic," a play by Margaret Lee Runbeck, was presented by the junior class April 4, under the direction of E. Dorothy Peterson.

The play concerned three young girls who were sent to Mexico to study art. One of the girls, Ursula F. Prowder (Carolyn Wessel) was an unattractive young miss who lacked the "pink magic" (feminine appeal) possessed by her two companions (Nancy Johnson and Martha Mackey).

Before the close of the play, however, Ursula, with the aid of her friends, was transformed from an unappealing teenager to an attractive young woman.

Group singing and dancing and a solo song and dance by James Fuller added variety to the play.

Row 1: Lisa Burgess, Patricia McNerny.
Row 2: James Fuller, Rosa Verger, Phyllis Haft, Darlene Jones, Mary Engman, Jane Piggott, Marian Hodge.

Row 3: William Serenius, Peter Burks, Martin Galex.
Standing: Gerald Mosher, James Maihack, Robert Cook.

Speech Class Plays

Seated: Edwin Ehrgott, Peter Burks, Wilson Hubbell, John Hause.

Nancy Johnson, Karl Wickstrom

"Father of the Bride," a comedy, was presented by the Speech II classes in the Rock Island high school auditorium Thursday, Jan. 10, 1952. The play was directed by E. Dorothy Peterson, who was assisted by Diane Dockum as student director.

Nancy Johnson and Karl Wickstrom, juniors, held the leading parts in the play. Nancy played the part of Kay Banks, the bride who faced the usual problems in her marriage plans; while Karl as Kay's father faced the problem of paying the bills for his daughter's elaborate wedding. The part of the groom, Buckley Dunstan, was played by Daniel Munn, also a junior.

The rest of the Banks family consisted of Tommy, played by Wilson Hubbell; Ben, Robert Motz; and Mrs. Banks, Carolyn Wessel.

Robert Motz, Thomas Parsons, David Wetzel, Larry Wald.

The other cast members were Peggy Swift, played by Lisa Burgess; Red, Peter Burks; Pete, Edwin Ehrgott; Mr. Weisgold, James Fuller; Tim's man, Martin Galex; Mr. Massoula, Arthur Goldstein; Buzz Taylor, John Hause; florist assistants, Nancy Long and Susann McDonald; Delilah, Martha Mackey; Mrs. Pulitski, Alexandra Pojedinok; Joe, Robert Rosene; and Miss Bellamy, Rosa Verger. Robert Rosene was the only senior in the cast, the others being juniors.

The plot of the play revolves around the marriage of Kay Banks and Buckley Dunstan. The play opens on a spring morning at the breakfast table of the Banks family, at which time Kay announces that she plans to marry Buckley. Mr. Banks suffers all sorts of troubles throughout the play, but everything turns out all right when the time for the marriage arrives and marks the final curtain of the play.

James Fuller, Edwin Ehrgott, Diane Dockum.

Declamation

Row 1: Carolyn Wessel, Sally Osborne, Anne Slenker, Annette Frazer, Patricia Walters, Sally Thonn, Kay Holst, Katherine Jones, Elnora McKee, Shirley Bradshaw, Linda Hanson, Margie Kempe, Faye Asquith, Effetta Davis, Martha Mackey, Phyllis Haft.

Row 3: Harriet Hanson, Elizabeth Bergendoff, Karin Youngberg, Kathryn Boyd, Betty Durkee, Joan Carlton, Donna Dover, Katharine Hill, Nancy Wilson, Paula Schubert, Rosa Verger, Lisa Burgess, Caryl Marsh, Ann Rimmerman, Nancy Young.

Again this year declamation proved to be one of the most popular individual activities at Rock Island high school. Two contests are usually prepared annually, one for girls and one for boys. Each person entered may choose his selection in one or more divisions: humorous, serious, and oratorical.

This year the girls' tournament was held here at Rock Island high school Nov. 9. Contestants were entered from 12 high schools.

Sally Osborne placed first unanimously in the serious finals; several other girls reached the finals, even though they didn't place in them.

Row 1: Ben Jacobson, Thomas Washington, Phillip Hubbart, John Hause, Karl Wickstrom, James Fuller, Jerry Parker, Larry Wald, Daniel Munn, Bruce Harders.

Row 2: Gene Estess, Martin Galex, Edward Gellman, Robert Rosene, George Coin, Michael Finkel, John White, Donald Young, Billie Lee, Arthur Goldstein.

State Speech Contest

Row 1: George Coin, Sally Osborne, Eugene Acuff.
Row 2: Martha Mackey, Lisa Burgess.

Standing: Daniel Munn, Ronald Driggs, Bruce Harders, Karl Wickstrom, Nancy Johnson.

After taking first place in the District speech contest at East Moline March 8 with a total of 44 points, Rock Island high school's speech department worked harder than ever for the Sectional and State final affairs.

Not even a wheel chair could keep down E. Dorothy Peterson, speech instructor, who directed the students. Late in February Miss Peterson suffered an ankle injury because of an auto accident and was on crutches for about a month.

In class, between lunch periods, and after school, Coach Peterson worked hard with her individual speakers. Those who took first place in the District contest included Lisa Burgess in original monologue, Phyllis Haft in original oratory, Bruce Harders in oratorical declamation, and Sally Osborne in verse reading.

Those taking second place were Kay Holst in comedy prose reading, Daniel Munn in serious reading, and Karl Wickstrom in radio news broadcasting. In extempore speaking John Romans placed fourth.

Rock Island's play, "Antigone," a modern Greek tragedy, also took first place at District. Eugene Acuff, Lisa Burgess, George Coin, Ronald Driggs, Bruce Harders, Ben Jacobson, Nancy Johnson, Martha Mackey, Daniel Munn, Sally Osborne, Larry Wald, and Karl Wickstrom were included in the unusually large cast.

Seated: Kay Holst, Lisa Burgess.
Standing: John Romans, Phyllis Haft, Karl Wickstrom, Sally Osborne, Bruce Harders.

Debate

Row 1: John Hause, James Buncher, Raymond Nolin, John Romans, William Burgess.

Row 2: Dickson Hause, David Rohlfing.

As one strolls down the hall on the third floor by room 308, a sharp audio vibration hits his ear. After a curious peek through the door, the question as to what is going on is solved.

With stop watch in hand, P. J. Martin, debate instructor, puts his students through their vocal paces. The topic chosen for this school year was: "Resolved: That all American citizens should be subject to conscription for essential service in time of war." This topic was debated in high schools throughout the United States.

Phillip Hubbart, P. J. Martin, Debate coach.

Representing Rock Island on the affirmative side were John Hause, Phillip Hubbart, Raymond Nolin, David Rohlfing, and John Romans. Those who debated on the negative side were James Buncher, William Burgess, and Dickson Hause. A unique part of the debate is the fact that the varsity squad is composed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

Coach Martin's debaters had many chances to put forth their views as they participated in numerous tournaments. Rock Island competed in the Geneseo invitational, the Augustana invitational, and the Northwest conference meet; and took part in the State Sectional meet.

The members of the Rock Island debate team presented their views to various civic groups. It might well be said that debate often becomes the sounding board for the citizens in national issues.

CYC and Y Canteen

Seated: Randall Peterson, Mary Engman, Nancy Wilson, Sally Osborne, June Chambers, Marilyn Thomas.

Standing: Dan Remy, Jacqueline Chambers, Marilyn Olson, Daniel Munn, David Parker, Charles Mills.

The Civic Youth Center was completely repainted in crimson and gold during the 1951-1952 school year. Mrs. George C. Kieffer was chairman of the sponsoring committee, and the office of student chairman was held by Dan Remy.

The Snow Ball, the annual CYC formal, was held Dec. 29 at the Masonic Temple. Carroll Baker's orchestra supplied the music.

The Y Canteen was reorganized this year and had a very successful season. Doreen LaMere served as chairman of the high school canteen committee. Sponsoring the Y Canteen were Dale Holmgrain of the Y.M.C.A. and Ruth Koch of the Y.W.C.A.

The Sweetheart dance was one of the outstanding dances of the year.

Row 1: Barbara Goff, Bruce Harders, Doreen LaMere, Eugene Acuff, Stuart Thoms.

Row 2: Milles Kellogg, Jayne Barber, Robert Boeye.

Absent for picture: Merrell Clark, Diane Dockum, Suzanne Hoyt, David LaMere, Karl Wickstrom.

Radio Staff

Row 1: William Burgess, Marilyn Olson, Dickson Hause.

Row 2: Shirley Kaminsky, Annette Frazer, Charlene Ragot, Patricia Walters.

Organized in 1933, this ends the 18th successful year of activities for the Radio staff of Rock Island high school.

The combined purpose of the Radio staff this year was to give students experience in radio and television work and to show American schools to the public.

The staff, under the direction of P. J. Martin, has taken care of all the script writing, directing, announcing, and performing for the various radio and television programs it has produced throughout the year. These programs have been given over stations WHBF and WHBF-TV, Rock Island; WOC and WOC-TV, Davenport; and WQUA, Moline.

In addition to preparing its own programs for radio and television, the staff also helped with broadcasting various other community activities.

Row 1: Jo Ann Randles, Jane Piggott, Lisa Burgess, Joanne Coffland, Alice Reeves, Carol Andrews, Ann McLellan, Margie Kempe.

Row 2: Joan Borst, Marilyn Thomas, Kathryn Smith, Suzanne Brinn, Martin Galex, Patricia Porter, Linda Hanson, Janice Wilford.

The staff was composed this year of 40 members. Twenty-three of these members met during the third period of each day. Most of the preparation for programs was done at this time.

Membership on the Radio staff follows successful application by the student. Eligibility is based upon recommendations of teachers and other staff members and a high scholastic average.

Expenses of the staff were covered by the selling of football programs. Proceeds from these sales were invested in broadcasting equipment. This fund also paid the expenses of the staff trip to Chicago.

Row 1: Helen Hanson, Larry Wald, Kay Holst.

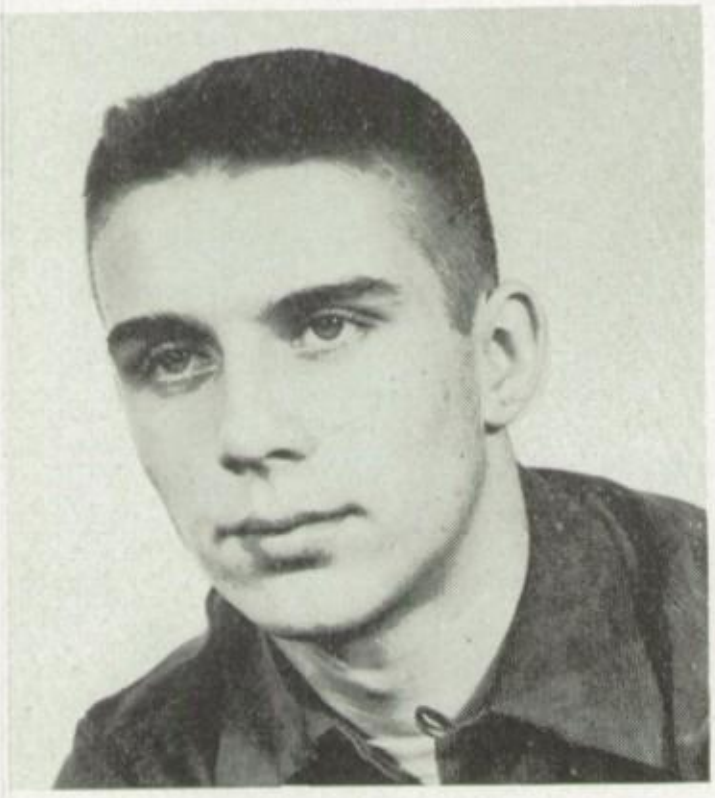
The Watchtower



JAMES SMITH
Editor in chief

MARGIE KEMPE
Copy editor

The production of The Watchtower is made possible through the efforts of the staff, adviser, student writers, photographers, engraver, printer, and cover manufacturer.

Esca G. Rodger, Watchtower adviser and director of high school publications, trained and gave advice to the staff.

Six seniors compose the basic staff: the editor in chief, business manager, photography editor, copy editor, sports editor, and vending manager. They are assisted by juniors who are expected to take over the jobs of the senior staff the following year.

James Smith, assisted by Richard Wight, was editor in chief of the 1952 Watchtower. Jim planned layouts, supervised staff work, and sent copy to the printer.

Milles Kellogg acted as business manager. Milles, assisted by Jane Piggott, balanced the budget and supervised sales campaigns.

MILLES KELLOGG
Business manager

RICHARD COLLINS
Sports editor

The WATCHTOWER assistants: Arthur Goldstein, assistant vending manager; Jane Piggott, assistant business manager; Richard Wight, assistant editor in chief; Martha Mackey, assistant photography editor; Robert Motz, assistant sports editor; Bonnie Kjellstrand, assistant copy editor.

Margie Kempe, copy editor, assigned stories to students, typed, and assembled them. Her assistant was Bonnie Kjellstrand.

Vending manager Ben Jacobson took charge of the candy-vending machines; he was assisted by Arthur Goldstein.

Shirley Bradshaw, assisted by Martha Mackey, scheduled all pictures except those of sports and wrote identifications for the pictures.

Stories, photography, and art work were contributed by Arthur Goldstein and Peter Lauritzen of the Camera club, Milles Kellogg, and other members of the student body.

SHIRLEY BRADSHAW
Photography editor

BEN JACOBSON
Vending manager

WATCHTOWER SALESMEN

Seated: Kay Holst, Jayne Barber, Dale Price, Nancy Long.

Standing: Judy Rudasill, Joan Boetje, George Coin, Nancy Raymond, Sally Osborne, Jane Almquist, Duane Sandstrom.

The task of selling Watchtowers fell upon the shoulders of 11 seniors, 11 juniors, and 10 sophomores who were appointed by The Watchtower business manager, Milles Kellogg.

The sales campaign was kept up through the school year by Crimson Crier advertisements and announcements on the school's public address system.

The top eleven salesmen were George Coin, Kay Holst, Sally Osborne, and Dale Price, seniors; Jayne Barber, Nancy Long, Nancy Raymond, and Duane Sandstrom, juniors; Jane Almquist, Joan Boetje, and Judy Rudasill, sophomores.

A prize was given to the high-ranking salesman for his contribution in selling The Watchtower.

The members of The Watchtower staff also sold annuals, but were ineligible for prizes.

The receipts and money were handled by Mrs. Barbara Nelson, one of the school office secretaries. Mrs. Nelson also kept the sales records.

Row 2: Marilyn Thomas, Ann McLellan, Janice Sieben, Sally Osborne, Janice Wilford, Barbara Putnam, Sally Thonn, Anne Slenker, Patricia Porter, Sharon Stanley, Marilyn Olson, Alice Reeves.

Absent for picture: Mary Ellen McCabe.

The Crimson Crier is a four-page newspaper published biweekly by the members of the advanced journalism class under the direction of Esca G. Rodger, chief adviser for the publications department. It is printed by David J. Borth's advanced printing classes.

A semester of training precedes the job of publishing the paper. A student must have the recommendation of his sophomore English teacher and a semester average of B or above to be eligible for this class.

Singing commercials over the public address system were used by the Crier for the first time this year. The idea originated with last year's Watchtower staff and proved just as successful for the Crier.

A campaign to clean up the cafeteria was begun by the fall staff in their last two issues and continued by the spring semester staff.

Every issue of this year's Crimson Crier was sent free of charge to several servicemen who were former students of Rock Island high school.

The Crier also has a large exchange list which includes schools in all parts of the country.

Sally Osborne served as editor in chief of the fall semester staff. She was assisted by Dale Price, managing editor; Janice Sieben, copy editor; Patricia Porter, first-page editor; Ann McLellan, business manager; Anne Slenker, second-page editor; George Ray, sports editor and Barbara Putnam, fourth-page editor.

DAVID J. BORTH

Completing the spring semester's staff were Sharon Anderson, Nancy Beck, Jacqueline Chambers, June Chambers, Megan Day, Diane Dockum, Jan Ericson, Edward Gellman, Keith Guthormson, Phyllis Haft, Shirley Herbert, Marian Hodge, Kay Iglehart, Vernice Litvin, and Eleanore Lybeck.

Representing The Crimson Crier at the 31st annual convention of the Illinois State High School Press association were Sally Osborne and Patricia Porter. Shirley Bradshaw and Milles Kellogg represented The Watchtower. The convention was held for two days, Oct. 12 and 13, on the campus of the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana.

The students attended lectures on various phases of journalism, and a "Funfest" was held Friday evening, Oct. 12, in the Student Union building for all the high school students who were present at the convention.

The two staffs put out a total of 15 issues this year. This included two special six-page issues: a holiday issue in the fall semester and a travel issue in the spring.

Cafeteria

"A Humphrey, please" is a familiar phrase around the cafeteria this year. The "Humphrey," which was introduced this year for people who are really hungry, consists of a double order of everything except the dessert. It costs only 45 cents.

Genevieve Robinson, Cafeteria Director

The staggered lunch periods are also new this year, and have made it possible for students and teachers to be served much faster than they could by the old method. By the new plan, the classes pass to the cafeteria at five-minute intervals. Each student has 35 minutes from the time he leaves his class until he has to be back.

Genevieve Robinson, head of the cafeteria, states that the new lunch schedule has been a great help to the staff.

The 1951-1952 cafeteria staff is made up of Miss Robinson, 6 full-time workers, 4 part-time workers, and 8 Rock Island high school students.

The workers who put in full time start between 7 and 7:30 a.m. and are through between 2:30 and 3 p.m. The workers who put in only part time start at 11 a.m. and are through between 2:30 and 3 p.m. Student helpers work during the serving time only.

Cafeteria dinners, which are planned by Miss Robinson, have been, as in other years, well balanced and very good.

Office and Clinic Assistants

Row 1: Jo Ann Randles, Joanne Coffland, Marian Teuscher, Kathleen Vetter, Melba Livengood, Janice Sieben, Shirley Harding, Katherine Jones, Joyce Brown.

Row 2: Faye Asquith, Gretchen Dornacher, Georgia Cutler.

Many varied duties, among which were running errands and collecting attendance slips, kept the office assistants busy during the 1951-1952 school year. Dean Florence J. Liebbe selected these office assistants from junior and senior girls who had free periods.

There were about twenty girls working as regular office assistants or in the offices of Miss Liebbe and Herbert L. Wagner, boys' counselor.

This year about seven girls were chosen to work in the clinic for Mrs. Mathilda Bacon, school nurse. Their duties were to help the nurse and to be in charge of the clinic when the nurse was out on a call.

Several girls assisted E. Dorothy Peterson, speech director, as speech assistants.

Row 1: Joanne Peters, Ann McLellan, Carol Andrews, Frances Carothers.
Row 2: Betty McGinnis, Regina MacBeth, Nancy Petersen, Carolyn Joy.
